THE

MAID-AT-ARMS

By Robert W. Chambers

Author of "Cardigan"

THE great popular success of "Cardigan" makes this new novel of unusual interest to all readers of fiction. It is a stirring novel of American life during the Revolution. It deals with the conspiracy of the powerful "patroon" families of New York and the subjugation of New York Province to the British. It is a novel alive with exciting adventure and with a most fascinating love interest in one of the most interesting and dramatic periods of our history. Some of the characters of "Cardigan" reappear in this new novel.

FALL PUBLICATIONS for 1902

IMPORTANT ILLUSTRATED BOOKS

UNKNOWN MEXICO. By CARL LUMHOLTZ, M.A., Member of the Royal Society of Science of Norway; author of "Among Cannibals," etc. A Record of five years' exploration among the tribes of the Western Sierra Madre; in the Tierra Caliente of Tepic and Jalisco and among the Tarascos of Michoacan. Illustrated with artistic treatments of 250 photographs taken by Dr. Lumholtz, together with 16 plates lithographed in full color, and 3 maps, all illustrating the explorer's remarkable discoveries.

Large 8*vo, Two Volumes* (Expressage additional), $12.00 net

This very elaborate work, without any question the most important contribution to the literature of exploration and discovery on this continent for many years, is the result of five years of research in Northwestern Mexico under the auspices and support of the American Museum of Natural History and the American Geographical Society, together with many public-spirited citizens. Dr. Lumholtz's object was the study of the few races of primitive man yet unmodified by their civilized neighbors, and this full story of his discovery of the Tarahumare cave-dwellers, and his life alone among them, together with many other adventures and discoveries, constitutes one of the most important records of successful scientific explorations besides possessing a stirring narrative value equalled by few works of its sort.

THROUGH HIDDEN SHENSI. By FRANCIS H. NICHOLS. Profusely illustrated from photographs taken by and for the author. 8*vo*, (Postage 18 cents,) $3.50 net

An account of a journey, in the autumn of 1901, from Pekin to Sian, in the province of Shensi, China, thence southward down the Han River to Hankow. The route lay through the heart of the "Boxers' Country" and across the oldest two provinces of China. It is essentially a story of untravelled roads over which few white men have ever ventured. Sian is one of the oldest cities in the world, and was the capital of China 2000 years before the Christian era.

NEW AMSTERDAM AND ITS PEOPLE. Studies Social and Topographical of the Town under Dutch Rule. By J. H. INNES. With maps and plans, and with many views, portraits, etc. (Postage 16 cents,) large 8*vo*, $2.50 net

An exhaustive picture, based upon the original records, public and private, of the actual conditions which prevailed in New Amsterdam a decade or so before the surrender to the English. Every phase of the life of the time is described with painstaking care and the book is of the highest importance and of the greatest value as an authentic and at the same time an interesting survey of the life of the period.

CROSS COUNTRY WITH HORSE AND HOUND. By FRANK SHERMAN PEER. Fully illustrated in color and black and white by J. CRAWFORD WOOD. 8*vo*, (Postage 25 cents,) $3.00 net

A work of full scope and authority, the first to be published in America on this fascinating sport, by a cross-country rider of large experience at home and abroad. The author is a member of a prominent New York State Hunt, who has ridden to hounds in England and France, as well as Canada; he brings also to his task a considerable experience in breeding, rearing and schooling hunters, together with extensive observations of packs of hounds at home and abroad.

THE PRIVATE SOLDIER UNDER WASHINGTON. By CHARLES KNOWLES BOLTON, Librarian of the Boston Athenæum. Illustrated, (Postage 18 cents,) $1.25 net

Going, first of all, to the diaries and journals of the men themselves and then to other contemporary documents, both public and private, Mr. Bolton has constructed a straightforward narrative of the daily life, under the various conditions suggested in the chapter headings, of the private soldier who served in the Revolutionary War. The citation of authorities shows upon what a solid foundation the book rests, while the elasticity and raciness of the author's style give color, atmosphere and significance to the recital of the barest facts.

CONTENTS—Origin of the Army. Maintaining the Forces. Material Needs. Firelock and Powder. Officer and Private. Camp Duties. Camp Diversions. Hospitals and Prison Ships. The Army in Motion. The Private Himself.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS' FALL PUBLICATIONS

WAYFARERS IN ITALY. By KATHARINE HOOKER. With 50 full page illustrations and many decorations. 8*vo*, (Postage 22 cents,) $3.00 net

A record of the impressions of a discriminating traveller who writes with a subtle appreciation of the art, poetry and scenery of Italy and with sympathetic comprehension of the spirit and genius of the Italian people.

CONTENTS—On the Lombard Plain. Sojourning in Florence. Driving through Tuscany. April in the Marches. In the Abruzzi, Monte Cassino and Ravello. The heart of Umbria. Across the Apenines. The Shore of the Adriatic. Siena and the Palio. Towered Cities. Venice. Roman Excursions.

ALL THE RUSSIAS. By HENRY NORMAN, M.P., Author of "The Peoples and Politics of the Far East." Travels and studies in contemporary European Russia, Finland, Siberia, the Caucasus and Central Asia. With over 100 striking and timely illustrations. 8*vo*, (Postage 26 cents,) $4.00 net

The best contemporary picture of the great Empire and its affairs which is accessible to the English reading public, and above all an entertaining study of an observer thoroughly up to-date in his knowledge of all political questions and their bearings, deeply interested in a country and race whose future he regards as superlatively important, and well able to communicate his enthusiasm. Mr. Norman is unfailingly graphic, suggestive and vivid, and whether or not the reader agrees with all the conclusions, he will find an entirely new comprehension of and interest in Russian problems dating from his reading of it.

LIBRARY OF ART. Edited by S. ARTHUR STRONG, Librarian of the House of Lords at Westminster, and also Librarian of Chatsworth, the Mansion of the Duke of Devonshire. (In Press)

Representing all schools and periods, only the greatest masters to be included as separate biographies. There will be about 38 volumes, each by the recognized authority on its particular subject. The special aim of the series is to set forth the art of all times in true proportion and perspective. Special announcements later.

NEW YORK SKETCHES. By JESSE LYNCH WILLIAMS. With many illustrations by R. M. MCCARTER, JULES GUERIN, EVERETT SHINN, W. L. LEIGH, and others. Sq. 8*vo*, (Postage 20 cents)

HENRY VIII. By A. F. POLLARD, M.A., F.R. HIST. SOC., late Assistant-Editor of the "Dictionary of National Biography."

Will be produced in style similar to "Prince Charles Edward," by Andrew Lang, and "Charles II.," by Osmund Airy, M.A., LL.D., and will be issued in two forms, as follows:

Edition de Luxe, on Japanese Paper, with facsimile frontispiece in colors, about thirty other full-page illustrations, and twelve smaller ones. Duplicate set of portraits. Limited to 250 copies. Royal Quarto, $50.00 net.

Fine Paper Edition, as above, excepting duplicate portraits. Limited to 1150 copies. Half Red Morocco, $25.00 net.

BOOKBINDERS AND THEIR CRAFT. By S. T. PRIDEAUX. Edition limited to 500 numbered copies, post 8*vo, rough edges, gilt top. Copiously illustrated from the author's and others' designs, and with a cover design by* MISS PRIDEAUX. (In Press)

This beautifully illustrated book is an authoritative discussion of its subject by a practical designer who, more than any other woman, has wrought in her field with originality and power.

ITALIAN CITIES. By E. H. and E. W. BLASHFIELD. A New and Sumptuous Edition. With 48 full-page illustrations in tint. In 2 vols., $5.00 net

A new edition of this stimulating and authoritative work sumptuously illustrated.

LITERARY LANDMARKS OF OXFORD. By LAURENCE HUTTON. Drawings by HERBERT RAILTON. (In Press)

French Cathedrals and Chateaux

By CLARA CRAWFORD PERKINS

Illustrated with photogravure frontispieces and sixty-two half-tone engravings

2 vols. Crown octavo (size 5¾ x 8⅜ inches), ornamental cloth, gilt tops.
For the set, net, $4.00
THE SAME, three-quarters levant morocco..... " " " " 7.50

A work of genuine artistic value, as well as a compact and comprehensive treatment of the subject. It embodies the essential artistic and historical facts, effectively and copiously illustrated. The work is notable for its excellent arrangement, setting forth very clearly the artistic basis of the themes in outlining the architectural development of the most typical monumental structures of France, ecclesiastical and secular, describing sufficiently the most characteristic qualities and distinctive features of each, and illuminating the record with an account of the part in history borne by each particular edifice. Volume I. is devoted to the cathedrals and Volume II. to the palaces and chateaux, thus covering the two great fields, the Gothic and the Renaissance, into which French architecture naturally divides itself.

It is the one great American Encyclopædia, new text, new type, new illustrations. There is nothing in this country comparable with it. Its only peers are the great German Encyclopædias.

A LIBRARY OF UNIVERSAL KNOWLEDGE, ANCIENT and MODERN

Every topic of human knowledge or investigation from the world's beginning to the present day, is presented in clear, succinct, accurate, impartial, and popular statement. Art, science, history, biography, religion, discovery, government, and so on for a Hundred Departments, are treated by specialists who are recognized authorities. One alphabetical arrangement embraces the entire field of subjects, making them instantly accessible for the busy man, student or general reader. There are more than 1,000 full-page illustrations, colored plates, maps, and charts, besides hundreds of text illustrations.

SILAS H. BERRY, Librarian Y. M. C. A., New York: "I have not during the past ten years seen an Encyclopædia that I was willing to recommend to our association libraries until Vol. I. of the NEW INTERNATIONAL came to my attention. You have, I believe, made an entirely new Encyclopædia, supplying a real need in the book world."

Four Notable Novels

Barbara Ladd

By CHARLES G. D. ROBERTS

AUTHOR OF

"The Kindred of the Wild," "The Heart of the Ancient Wood," etc.

Illustrated in tints by Frank Ver Beck.

$1.50.

A story of the Revolution and the days that ushered it; yet the din of war and the clash of arms is subordinate to the love story and the wayward, winsome heroine, fair Mistress Barbara, whose love for nature recalls to the mind the enchanting "Miranda" in "The Heart of the Ancient Wood."

Hope Loring

By LILIAN BELL

AUTHOR OF

"Abroad with The Jimmies," "The Love Affairs of an Old Maid," etc.

Illustrated by Frank T. Merrill.

$1.50.

Hope Loring—wilful, unconventional, lovable—is perhaps the most charming character ever drawn by Miss Bell, and this brilliant sketch of the foibles of society, the vivid descriptions of college days and their dear delights of football and athletics, and the powerful picture of the vicissitudes of life on Wall Street will be appreciated by every reader

The Last Word

By ALICE MacGOWAN

Fully illustrated.

$1.50.

This story professes to give "the last word" in regard to the position of the modern woman in love and marriage. It is primarily a story of the heart—of a woman's heart—yet it is such a piquant mixture of humor, practicality and sentiment that the latter never unwelcomely predominates. There is no woman who will read it without finding in many places her own heart speaking to her from its pages. There are few who will read it without both laughter and tears. It is the greatest autobiography of a woman's love since "Jane Eyre" and it is modern in its essence.

Councils of Croesus

LOTHROP'S NEW BOOKS

THE SPENDERS

20TH THOUSAND

By HARRY LEON WILSON. Six Illustrations by O'NEILL LATHAM Price, $1.50

A clear, strong, quick-moving novel. A genuine American story of a family that comes out of the West, with all the West's breeziness, independence, humor, and sturdy democracy,—the cardinal native traits. A really great piece of contemporaneous fiction.

DOROTHY SOUTH

By GEORGE CARY EGGLESTON, Author of "A CAROLINA CAVALIER." 32D THOUSAND

Six Illustrations by C. D. WILLIAMS. Price, $1.50

BOOK NEWS FOR MAY SAYS:

"In 'Dorothy South' Mr. Eggleston has created a simple and beautiful romance, full of nobility, with just a light scattering of sage but smiling philosophy intercepted by touches here and there of sparkling wit. No such woman character as Dorothy has appeared in fiction for many a long day."

THE WHIRLWIND

By RUPERT HUGHES Price, $1.50

This is a story of a striking personality from his humble, country childhood through a brilliant political and war record, up to a Presidential candidacy,—all of it graphic, typical, and of compelling interest.

JUDITH'S GARDEN

By MARY E. STONE BASSETT Price, $1.50

Illustrations in Four Colors by GEORGE WRIGHT

BROOKLYN DAILY EAGLE SAYS:

"It is a beautiful, idyllic story, this romance of 'Judith's Garden,' fascinating to one who finds Mother Nature the most satisfying of friends."

CHANTICLEER

By VIOLETTE HALL Price, $1.50

Eight Three-color Illustrations

Three by W. GRANVILLE SMITH

This is an idyl of modern life in which a love story of charming sweetness develops. A book that will appeal to all lovers of nature.

MR. WHITMAN

By ELISABETH PULLEN. Price, $1.50

A brilliant romance of comedy and adventure.

CLEVELAND DAILY WORLD SAYS:

"Altogether the story is bright, engaging, novel, and delightful."

MARGARET BOWLBY

By EDGAR L. VINCENT Price, $1.50

BOSTON TRANSCRIPT SAYS:

"A 'political' novel and a strenuous one,—one, withal, that appears to be well worth the while both of the author and of the reader."

RICHARD GORDON

By ALEXANDER BLACK

Six Illustrations by ERNEST FUHR Price, $1.50

This is one of the strongest novels of the day. The scenes are laid in upper New York society, with a dash into Bohemia that is refreshing and vivid.

STAGE CONFIDENCES

By CLARA MORRIS Sixteen Illustrations

Price, net, $1.20; postpaid, $1.35

In this fascinating book Miss Morris talks with humor, point, and charm of the mysterious, alluring, exacting life behind the foot-lights.

THE GATE OF THE KISS

By JOHN W. HARDING. Illustrated. Price, $1.50

BOSTON JOURNAL SAYS:

"It can readily be seen that this is no mere conventional romance of Bible times, but a story of notable strength and boldness."

JEZEBEL

By LAFAYETTE MCLAWS, Author of "WHEN THE LAND WAS YOUNG." Four Illustrations by CORWIN K. LINSON Price, $1.50

DETROIT FREE PRESS SAYS:

"'Jezebel' may be named as a vivid and picturesque story. A very real and human character is the proud and strong-willed heroine."

'TWEEN YOU AND I

By MAX O'RELL. $1.20 net; postpaid, $1.35

ST. LOUIS GLOBE-DEMOCRAT SAYS:

"The volume throughout sparkles with bright comment and pertinent anecdote, and is delightful reading."

LOTHROP PUBLISHING COMPANY, BOSTON

LOTHROP'S NEW BOOKS

THE MILLIONAIRESS

By JULIAN RALPH. Six Illustrations by C. F. UNDERWOOD. Price, $1.50

A striking story of New York social life among carriage people. It has a charming heroine, who occupies the centre of the stage in some brilliant scenes. It shows that a woman of fashion and an heiress can keep unspoiled her sweetness and sincerity of nature.

EAGLE BLOOD

By JAMES CREELMAN, Author of "ON THE GREAT HIGHWAY."
Illustrated by ROSE CECIL O'NEILL. Price, $1.50

This is Mr. Creelman's great novel, although as a brilliant writer he is well known throughout the world. His story introduces an Englishman of noble family, who comes to America for the purpose of making his way, not by a marriage for money, but by commercial opportunities. The work is one of great psychological intensity, full of action, tender in its love motif, and world-interesting in its popular discussion of commercialism.

NEW JUVENILES

FIVE LITTLE PEPPERS ABROAD

By MARGARET SIDNEY. Illustrated by FANNY Y. CORY. $1.10 net, postpaid $1.25

This new story tells of the Pepper family abroad, and it is as irresistible as the other famous books of this series. "It will take the hearts of the children by storm."

THE ERRAND BOY OF ANDREW JACKSON

By W. O. STODDARD. Illustrated by WILL CRAWFORD. Cloth. $1.00 net, postpaid $1.12

BOSTON TRANSCRIPT says:
"It is filled with incident and exciting adventure, and gives a stirring pen picture of a very stirring time, the War of 1812."

THE BALE MARKED CIRCLE X

By GEORGE CARY EGGLESTON. Illustrated by C. CHASE EMERSON. $1.20 net, postpaid $1.35

The adventures of three boy soldiers in the Confederate service who are sent in a sloop on a secret voyage. The boys pass through startling adventures, suffer shipwreck, and finally reach their destination.

THE ADMIRAL'S AID

By Chaplain H. H. CLARK, U.S.N. Illustrated by I. B. HAZELTON. $1.00 net, postpaid $1.12

This story of life in the new navy, with all of its interesting qualities, makes "The Admiral's Aid" the most fascinating of the sea stories written by this favorite author.

THE LITTLE CITIZEN

By M. E. WALLER. Illustrated by H. BURGESS $1.00 net, postpaid $1.12

This is a right royal juvenile story. It is the narrative of the development of a waif of New York streets in the simple and wholesome life of a Vermont farmer neighborhood. The story tells of the evolution of a street gamin into a useful little citizen.

THE TREASURE OF SHAG ROCK

By ROBERT LLOYD. Illustrated by I. B. HAZELTON. $1.00 net, postpaid $1.12

From track athletics by school-boys in Boston to hunting buried treasure on a South Pacific island does this book conduct its readers in a style to suggest Jules Verne at his best.

STEPPING-STONES

By ORISON SINETT MARDEN
Price, $1.00 net, postpaid $1.15

This new volume of essays contains talks to young people of both sexes full of practical value, happy sketches of great characters, salient suggestions on deportment and conduct, and shrewd advice of all kinds touching every-day living.

A NEW EDITION OF

FIVE LITTLE PEPPERS and HOW THEY GREW

By MARGARET SIDNEY. 16mo, illustrated. 50 cents

THE NEW HAMLET

BY

WM. HAWLEY SMITH and THE SMITH FAMILY, FARMERS

"Bound in Boards" Retail, 50 Cents

THIS PLAY WAS COMPOSED BY SHAKESPEARE AND THE SMITH FAMILY. THEN IT WAS DONE INTO A BOOK AND BOUND IN BOARDS. (No. 2, FENCING.) BY HAND, AT THE BARN, ON THE FARM, BY FARMERS. - - - - - -

THE most unique, original, up-to-date and out-of-the-ordinary book of the season. This new version of Shakespeare is a very clever satire on the two plays "Hamlet" and "Romeo and Juliet." Nobody gets killed, or even hurt, Hamlet marries Juliet, Romeo is wedded to Ophelia, and they all live long and prosper. The make-up of the book is in keeping with its contents. It is printed on manila paper, and is literally "bound in boards," the covers being No. 2 fencing, the whole tied together with binding twine.

READY NOVEMBER 1

ESHEK—THE OPPRESSOR

By GERTRUDE POTTER DANIELS

Author of "The Warners," "Halamar," etc.

Cloth, 12mo. Retail, $1.50

But few authors possess the faculty of writing a novel wherein the characters are realistic—clothed in everyday habiliments, saying and doing things that are natural for them to say and do. In her latest work Mrs. Daniels has demonstrated the fact that she is a past-master in the art of creating a human story, one teeming with alluring scenes and incidents and characters of absorbing interest that hold the reader spell-bound during perusal.

"Eshek—The Oppressor" is a strong story. The style is simple and direct, the language forcible, and the plot one that is well conceived and carried to a logical conclusion The struggle for an existence, the temptation, fall and subsequent career of Jarvis Kennedy, the virile pen-pictures of city life, with its varying lights and shades, the oil excitement in Texas, the evil of trusts, the labor question, romance and tragedy—these form the basis of one of the most thrilling stories written in recent years.

READY NOVEMBER 1

FATHER TOM OF CONNEMARA

By ELIZABETH O'REILLY NEVILLE

Illustrated. Cloth, 12mo. Retail, $1.50

Rarely has Irish life been depicted with such strength and truthfulness as is one in "Father Tom of Connemara." The author, being a native of that part of he Emerald Isle so forcefully described, brings into her stories all those elements f realism and of local color that stamp them as genuine, and without which no ale can be successfully told.

These stories are not fiction. They are founded on fact, and many of the haracters are still performing their parts in the drama of life. Into these sketches re wrought, with infinite skill, various phases of the Irish people—wit, humor, athos and tragedy, and all set forth with such consummate art as to cause the ader to take the characters to his heart and treat them as personal friends.

Father Tom, himself, is a typical Irish priest, full of quaint humor and keen t, and with a heart large enough to encompass all the trials and tribulations of e members of his extensive parish. To him the people took their woes and their ys; he officiated at their wakes, their christenings and their weddings, participated all their celebrations, settled all disputes, and wound himself about their heart-rings, shedding his beneficence upon all who sought his aid.

NEW PUBLICATIONS OF

GOUPIL & CO., of Paris

Goupil's Paris "Salons," 1902

A review of the most remarkable Paintings and Sculptures exhibited by the "Société des Artistes Français" and the "Société Nationale des Beaux-Arts." Text by Maurice Hamel. English translation by Paul Villars. This year's edition has been considerably embellished and is now only issued in a strictly limited edition with French or English Text, which cannot fail to enhance its value to all Bibliophiles and Art Collectors as well as to regular subscribers.

The illustrations consist of ONE HUNDRED FULL-PAGE PLATES and include:

Two Hand-Finished Water-Color Facsimiles, viz.:

"THE CHILDREN'S DANCE." By J. A. Muenier. An exquisite out-door picture, full of life, color and atmosphere.

"AN ENGLISH DRUMMER BOY (1798.)" By G. W. Joy. A most striking military subject.

Three Remarque Artist Proof Etchings, viz.:

"AN ALDER TREE." By H. Harpignies, the greatest living French Landscapist. Etched by G. Garen, a medallist in this year's Salon. The Remarque is a portrait of M. Harpignies, who is now in his 84th year.

"Tizianella." By Mlle. Juana Romani, a pupil of Roybet, etched by R. Spinelli. The Remarque is a portrait of Mlle. Romani.

"LOBSTER FISHERS." By Le Gout-Gérard, a rising marine painter. Etched by Garen. The remarque is the head of a typical old fisherman.

Also an Original Etching by J. Patricot, the celebrated engraver:

"PORTRAIT OF M. GEORGE PERROT, MEMBER OF THE INSTITUTE OF FRANCE."

All the above make handsome framed pictures, and as such are worth more than the price of the entire book.

Intending subscribers should secure their copies at once, as both of this year's very limited De Luxe Editions will soon be out of print.

JOHN LANE THE BODLEY HEAD 67 Fifth Avenue NEW YORK

COMING 4 LEADERS

Van Dyke — The Blue Flower

Color Illustrations. $1.50

A book of holiday stories that inevitably suggest the famous Ruling Passion stories which sold almost seventy-five thousand. In its beautiful dress, with illustrations in color, "The Blue Flower" ought to run ahead of its predecessor. Nine stories—a lot of good reading.

Barrie — The Little White Bird

Or, Adventures in Kensington Gardens. $1.50

This book promises to duplicate the success of "Sentimental Tommy." The N. Y. Commercial Advertiser says: "There can be no question that this is Mr. Barrie at his best. All the qualities which have endeared the author of 'Sentimental Tommy' to hundreds of readers are here to an unusual degree."

Riley — The Book of Joyous Children

Profusely Illustrated by Will Vawter
$1.20 net. Postage, 8 cents

It has been several years since Mr. Riley has published a book of new verse. The sweetness, grace, laughter, and tenderness of his well-known poems are found to the full in this new collection. It will be unrivalled as a gift book during the coming season. Every poem a new poem.

Color Illustrations. 75 cents

Mr. Page's charming child story is presented specially as a holiday book suggestive of the very successful "Santa Claus's Partner" and "The Old Gentleman of the Black Stock," with color illustrations.

NOTE—There will be a big run on these books. During the rush season it may be difficult to keep them in stock. Orders filled in order of receipt.

The Publishers' Weekly.

FOUNDED BY F. LEYPOLDT.

SEPTEMBER 27, 1902.

The editor does not hold himself responsible for the views expressed in contributed articles or communications

All matter, whether for the reading-matter columns or advertising pages, should reach this office not later than Wednesday noon, to insure insertion in the same week's issue.

"I hold every man a debtor to his profession, from the which, as men do of course seek to receive countenance and profit, so ought they of duty to endeavor themselves by way of amends to be a help and an ornament thereunto."—LORD BACON.

THE FALL OUTLOOK.

THE prosperity of the past few years continues buoyant, and, apparently, irrepressible. From all parts of the country reports of business done so far and in prospect are uniformly good and encouraging. While certain sections, unfortunately, have suffered from abnormal weather conditions, a greater area has been fortunate in this respect, and business has been phenomenally good in New York and in other eastern cities, where unusually cool weather has prevailed during the summer.

Encouraged by these conditions, the publishers are announcing a larger number of books than ever before, and the average of quality is also quite up to the standard which for the past two or three years has been steadily advancing.

For a year or two wars and the general unrest attending a change of government, and a postponed coronation, have made the newspaper so all-absorbing that English publishers feared the public would not need books of lasting worth, and therefore the works of both American and English authors of note, always published simultaneously here and in England, were kept back. But now confidence seems restored, and the books we are to have this fall are goodly in number and promising in matter. The department of history and biography promises to be especially strong, and almost every publisher has on his list an original work by some noted authority, or a new edition brought down to date of some well-known standard work on the subject.

The death roll of the year among the writers is a long one on both sides of the ocean, and the last work and the posthumous and collected works, and the biographical studies of these authors furnish a notable share of the coming books. Among such authors are John Fiske, Paul L. Ford, F. Bret Harte, E. L. Godkin, Frank Stockton, H. E. Scudder, Mrs. Stoddard, Edward Eggleston, E. S. Brooks and J. G. Nicolay in America, and Kate Greenaway, Charlotte M. Yonge, and the scientists Virchow, Pasteur and Schenk in Europe. Autobiographies strongly appealing to the general buyer will also be furnished in the recollections of many noted persons.

Books on trade questions, finance and business, strikes, trusts and the many problems now before the industrial world are to be numerous, and the names of their authors vouch for their importance. Many natural phenomena, volcanic irruptions, inundations, storms of unusual fury of wind and fatality of lightning have been features of the year, and many of the causes of these phenomena are to be treated in the forthcoming books.

Fiction is always the best source of income to the bookseller, and it is to be lavishly provided by old and new writers.

On the whole, the booktrade may look into the future with greater hope than for many years past. The associations created for their protection are growing stronger day by day and are doing increasingly effective work. The opposition is practically narrowed down to one house of any importance whatever, the half dozen or more small fry elsewhere being simply feeders to the underseller in New York. If all concerned will be steadfast and loyal to the cause during another busy season, willing to make a sacrifice as well as to reap a reward, victory will at no far distant day perch upon the banner of the united booktrade.

THE "Index to Fall Announcements" in this issue of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY will be found to be more inclusive than usual, because it has been our purpose to make this list in a measure supplementary to the Index to "The Publishers' Trade List Annual." That index includes the announcements publishers were ready to make up to August 1 of the present year; the index in this issue covers, also, all announcements made up to September 20, including those of all the books that are likely to be published during the fall and holiday season. With the Index to "The Publishers' Trade List Annual," the subscriber to THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY is now enabled to trace easily the current books through that work, the index in the present issue, and the monthly cumulated lists, until the issue in January next of the cumulated annual catalogue.

SALES OF "STOCK IN BULK."

THE following bill has been signed by the Governor and is now the law of the State of New York regulating the sales of stocks of goods in bulk by retailers:

An act to regulate the sale of merchandise in bulk.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A sale of any portion of a stock of merchandise other than in the ordinary course of trade in the regular and usual prosecution of the sellers business, or the sale of an entire stock of merchandise in bulk, shall be fraudulent and void as against the creditors of the seller, unless the seller and purchaser shall at least five days before the sale make a full and detailed inventory showing the quantity, and, so far as possible with the exercise of reasonable diligence, the cost price to the seller of each article to be included in the sale, and unless such purchaser shall at least five days before the sale in good faith make full explicit inquiry of the seller as to the name and place of residence or place of business of each and every creditor of the seller, and the amount owing each creditor, and unless the purchaser shall at least five days before the sale in good faith notify or cause to be notified personally or by registered mail each of the seller's creditors of whom the purchaser has knowledge, or can with the exercise of reasonable diligence acquire knowledge, of such proposed sale and of the stated cost price of merchandise to be sold and of the price proposed to be paid therefor by the purchaser.

SEC. 2. That, except as provided in the preceding section, nothing therein contained, nor any act thereunder, shall change or affect the present rules of evidence or the present presumptions of law.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

BOOK THEFTS AT BRENTANO'S.

BRENTANO'S at New York, owing to a deep-laid conspiracy, have been losing books in small quantities since last February, and in consequence Frederick Evans, the assistant order clerk, has been arrested. The specific charge is the theft of books to the value of $15.77, on August 18. Evans occupied a position of trust, and was employed only after a personal examination by one of the firm of a list of twelve references, all of which were found unimpeachable.

Mr. Simon Brentano became convinced that books were being stolen from the store, and he engaged a detective September 10th to find out the culprit. It was discovered that the books were being taken out of the shop by three of the boys under direction of Evans. The stolen books were taken to the Manhattan Delivery Company, where they were re-addressed to the bookstore of Charles P. Cox, No. 257 West 125th Street, and to other small book dealers. A visit of the detective to Cox's store revealed a number of volumes readily identified as having come from Brentano's. These were mostly books listed at $1.50, and readily salable.

Mr. Cox said that he had bought the books of Evans, who had represented himself as one of a large jobbing firm that could let him have popular novels at less than market prices. The chance seemed too good to be let slip, so, he said, he had been buying books from Evans right along.

An examination of the boys who had been carrying the books showed that they had been delivering books for Evans at the rate of 15 cents a volume. One of the boys had made some trouble for Evans, and so he received from one to three volumes a day to dispose of himself. Evans had told the boys if they were ever questioned about what they were doing to make a stout denial, and he would stand by them. Judicious cross questioning, however, proved too much for them, and they confessed all.

On the 20th inst., Evans was arrested and the next day was brought before Justice Flammer at the Jefferson Market Police Court, who held him in default of $1,000 bail. The hearing will very likely come off early in October, and some startling developments are expected.

OBITUARY NOTES.

DR. ALBRECHT KIRCHHOFF, for some time chairman of the Library Committee of the German Börsenverein and member of the Historical Committee of that association, died in Leipzig, August 20. He was acting librarian of the library of the Börsenverein from March till November, 1869, and presented to that institution his exceedingly valuable collection of material relating to the history of the German booktrade.

THE REV. DR. HENRY AUGUSTUS PIERSON TORREY, oldest professor in term of service in the University of Vermont, died at Beverly, Mass., September 20. He was born in Beverly, January 8, 1837. He graduated from the University of Vermont in 1858, and from the Union Theological Seminary, New York, in 1865. He edited Professor Joseph Torrey's book, "Theory of Fine Art," and in 1892 published "The Philosophy of Descartes."

JOHN STEBBINS LEE, D.D., Professor of Church History, and the first president of St. Lawrence University, died on the 10th inst., at Canton, N. Y., aged eighty-two years. He was graduated from Amherst College in the class of 1845. He was the oldest educator in the Universalist denomination, having been connected with denominational schools and colleges for fifty-seven years. He was a frequent contributor to denominational papers, and the author of "Nature and Art in the Old World" and "Sacred Critics."

MAJOR JOHN WESLEY POWELL, the eminent naturalist and director of the Bureau of Ethnology at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, died at Haven, Me., on the 23d inst. Major Powell was born in Mount Morris, Livingston Co., N. Y., March 24, 1834, and was the son of a Methodist clergyman. When about seven years old the family removed to Jackson, Ohio, where the boy became interested in scientific matters. He attended school in Illinois, Wisconsin an

Ohio. He was graduated from Illinois Wesleyan with the degrees of A.M. and Ph.D. Later he received the degree of LL.D. from Columbia University, of Washington, in 1882, the same from Harvard in 1886 and a Ph.D. from Heidelberg the same year. Enlisting in the Second Illinois Artillery, at Shiloh he lost his right arm. He was mustered out with the rank of major. After the war he again devoted his attention to scientific pursuits. He explored the then little known Grand Canyon of the Colorado in 1869. He was appointed director of the United States Bureau of Ethnology in 1879, and of the United States Geological Survey a year later, when he also was elected to membership in the American Academy of Science. In 1884 Professor Powell resigned the post of director of the Geological Survey, but remained at the head of the Bureau of Ethnology. Major Powell was the author of "The Exploration of the Colorado River of the West and Its Tributaries," "Report on the Geology of the Uintah Mountains," "Introduction to the Study of Indian Languages," "Studies in Sociology," "Canyons of the Colorado" and "Truth and Error."

NOTES ON AUTHORS.

Miss Alice Caldwell Hegan, the author of that successful little story, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," has written her second book, and it is to appear serially in The Century. She calls it "Lovey Mary," and the many admirers of Mrs. Wiggs will be glad to know that this optimistic character reappears in the new story.

The Rev. Dr. Henry C. McCook, a prominent clergyman of the Presbyterian church, resigned as pastor of the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church, Philadelphia, on the 21st inst., after a service of thirty-three years, to devote himself entirely to literary work. Dr. McCook is the author of a work on "American spiders," "The Martial Graves of Our Fallen Heroes," "Gospel in Nature," "The Latimers," "Old Farm Fairies," etc.

Pearl Mary Teresa Craigie, who writes under the pen-name of John Oliver Hobbes, is an American by birth and parentage, being the daughter of John Morgan Richards, a wealthy manufacturer of Boston. At an early age she married Reginald Walpole Craigie, a young Englishman, from whom she was separated a few years later. Her first published book was "Some Emotions and a Moral," (1891.) This was followed by "The Sinner's Comedy," (1892;) "A Study in Temptations," (1893;) "A Bundle of Life," (1894;) "Journeys End in Lovers Meeting," being a one-act play written for Ellen Terry, (1894;) "The Gods, Some Mortals, and Lord Wickenham," (1895;) "The Herb-Moon," (1896;) "School for Saints," (1897;) two plays produced at the St. James' Theatre: "The Ambassador," (1898,) and "A Repentance," (1899;) "Osberne and Useyne," (1899,) a three-act tragedy; "Robert Orange," (1900;) and "A Word to the Wise," (1901.) She will shortly produce a play in collaboration with Murray Carson, one of the authors of "Rosemary."

JOURNALISTIC NOTES.

Collier's Weekly formally opened its new publishing house on West Thirteenth Street, New York, on September 23.

The John L. Whitman Moral Improvement Association Journal is the title of a semi-monthly just begun at the Cook County Jail, Chicago. Subscription price $1 a year, five cents the copy.

The Spirit of the Times and New York Sportsman, successor of Wilkes's Spirit of the Times, which for many years from 1858 on was the Bell's Life of America, and a prosperous sporting newspaper, has gone bankrupt. William T. Porter established the original Spirit of the Times in 1831. George Wilkes came in in 1853 or 1854 and became sole proprietor in 1858. In 1875 Col. Elisha A. Buck bought from Mr. Wilkes a half interest in the paper, and in 1879 the other half. Twenty years later a stock company, of which Mr. Buck was president, took the paper. Mr. Buck was killed in a railroad accident in August, 1893, and Horace Russell has since been president. He is the principal petitioning creditor in bankruptcy, his claim being $16,000 for money lent in the past five years. F. W. Leslie has been appointed temporary receiver and will very likely purchase the paper if he is permitted to continue its publication uninterruptedly.

LITERARY AND TRADE NOTES.

Harper & Brothers will bring out next month Serao's "The Conquest of Rome."

William Heinemann, one of the most enterprising English publishers, intends to pay this country a visit in the fall.

John Saint Loe Strachey, the editor and proprietor of The Spectator, will make a visit to this country some time in November.

A. C. McClurg & Co. will publish in November a novel dealing with the Northwest, by Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, entitled "The Conquest—the true story of Lewis and Clark."

Hurst & Co. have made a number of additions to their many series and libraries. They have about 2500 titles put up in various styles, printed on good paper and bound in cloth or leather, as may be desired.

The book for collectors by a collector that Sampson Low, Marston & Co. will publish next month, and that was referred to in our last week's issue, is "Rariora," and not the thing that the linotype made us say.

G. & C. Merriam & Co. call attention to their new edition of "Webster's International Dictionary," with 25,000 additional words, phrases and definitions, printed from new plates. The Merriams have again proven that they are not content to leave well enough alone, and that they are determined, whenever the opportunity presents itself, to make better the best.

John Lane will bring out shortly a library edition of "Lowell's Early Prose Writings," compiled and edited by Walter Littlefield. Dr. Edward Everett Hale has written a brief preface for the book, in which he presents his recollections of Lowell as he knew him at Harvard and as a contributor to his brother's magazine, The Boston Miscellany, from which all but two of the articles and stories are taken.

THE AMERICAN BAPTIST PUBLICATION SOCIETY will publish this fall an edition de luxe of Mrs. Caroline Atwater Mason's popular novel, "A Lily of France." This edition will contain 14 superb photogravures, with a beautiful frontispiece from an original painting. The binding will be dark blue cloth, with the combined coats of arms of William of Orange and Charlotte de Bourbon in gold.

FROM the Sign of the Hop-Pole, Crockham Hill, Eden Bridge, Kent, England, is to appear at Michaelmas a reprint of an essay written in 1865 by Henry David Thoreau, entitled "Life Without Principle," with a short biographical account of the author by Ralph Waldo Emerson The edition is to be limited to 1000 copies. This volume is to be the first of a series intended to be issued from this address at Michaelmas, Christmas, Candlemas and Easter of each year.

THE dramatization of "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall" is now having the finishing touch put to it by the author, Charles Major, and the dramatist, James McArthur. Mr. McArthur, it will be remembered, was the dramatist of "The Bonny Brier Bush." He was for many years one of the editors of the Bookman and is at present one of Harper & Brothers' literary advisers. Charles Frohmann is arranging for the production of the play, and the announcement of the leading rôles may be made at any moment.

E. P. DUTTON & Co. have just ready a work entitled "Vital Religion, or, the Personal Knowledge of Christ," by G. H. Walpole, D.D., principal of Bede College, Durham, England, which is the third volume published of a series of handbooks on current ecclesiastical problems. The problems, which are discussed in this series of handbooks, are all of primary importance to such as take an intelligent interest in the Anglican Communion. The object aimed at is to treat these problems in a sympathetic and broad-minded spirit.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT in his Bangor speech referred to Charles Wagner's book, "The Simple Life," as one so wholesome and containing such sound doctrine that he wished it could be used "as a tract throughout our country" Almost immediately orders began to come into the publishers, McClure, Phillips & Co., and the book, which had before had a quiet though steady sale, leaped from a second edition into a third, and is now about going into a fourth.

MCCLURE, PHILLIPS & Co. will publish within the next fortnight "The Two Vanrevels," a novel of Indiana life in the 40's, by Booth Tarkington; "Racer of Illinois," by Henry Somerville, author of "Jack Racer," to which the present novel is a sequel; "Gabriel Tolliver," the first long novel by Joel Chandler Harris, the creator of "Uncle Remus;" "Border Fights and Fighters," by the Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady; "Letters from Egypt," by Lady Duff Gordon, with introduction by George Meredith; also, "Dante and His Times," by Dr. Karl Federn, a profound student of Italian literature.

A. C. ARMSTRONG & SON announce "Erromonga, the Martyr Isle," by the Rev. H. A. Robertson, of Erromonga, a missionary biography expected to rival that of John G. Paton, already in its 22d thousand; "The Death of Christ," by Professor James Denney; "Flood-Tide: Sunday Evenings in a City Pulpit," by the Rev. G. H. Morrison, of Glasgow; and "The Church and the Ministry in the Early Centuries," by Professor T. H Lindsay. This house will also bring out a new edition of Dr. George Matheson's "Representative Men of the Bible;" and the fifth thousand of "Brooks by the Traveller's Way," by the Rev. J. H. Jowett..

BRENTANO'S are preparing for fall publication a dainty edition of Walter Besant's "Art of Fiction;" and an illustrated library edition of Jessie Fothergill's "The First Violin," in two volumes, with upwards of 60 illustrations after wash drawings by George W. Brenneman, of the Salmagundi Club. They have nearly ready "Italy," by Theophile Gautier; "Avon of Shakespeare," by James Thorne; "A Visit to London," by Edward V. Lucas; "Palaces, Prisons and Resting Places of Mary, Queen of Scots," by M. M. Shoemaker; and Museum editions of the most notable books of all ages and all countries, beginning with "The Odes of Anacreon" and taking in the best-known works of Emerson, De Quincey, Rabelais and Montaigne. For children they have in preparation "The Adventures of Uncle Lubin," by W. Heath Robinson.

CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS announce a volume compiled from the literary remains of Horace Bushnell, the hundredth anniversary of whose birth has again directed attention to his writings. The title will be "The Spirit in Man: Sermons and Fragments That Remain." During October will appear "New Amsterdam and Its People: studies social and topographical of the town under Dutch rule," by J. H. Innes, with maps, plans, views and portraits; "The Private Soldier Under Washington," by Charles Knowles Bolton, librarian of the Boston Athenæum; "Sea Fighters from Drake to Farragut," by Jessie Peabody Farragut; "The Blue Flower," a new book of stories by Henry Van Dyke; and "Whom the Gods Destroyed," by Josephine Dodge Daskam, a group of stories giving studies of the artistic temperament. Kipling's "Kim" has just been added to the Outward Bound edition of his works.

BOWEN-MERRILL COMPANY will publish at once "Edges," by Miss Alice Woods, a new Indiana author, a story of American and Parisian painters' life; "The Loom of Life," a new story, by Charles Frederic Goss, in which he follows lines laid down in his "Redemption of David Corson," dealing as the story does with the struggles of a strong soul against temptation; also, "The Long Straight Road," by George Horton, who takes his title from a phrase of Robert Louis Stevenson: "Times are changed with him who marries; there are no more by-path meadows where you may innocently linger, but the road lies long and straight and dusty to the grave." This rather sombre view of the married man's lot is lightened, it is said, with plenty of American humor and cheerful tenderness. This is Mr. Horton's first story of American life, his previous novels being romances of modern Greece, where Mr. Horton spent five years as consul at Athens.

SMALL, MAYNARD & Co. will publish at once "Letters from a Self-Made Merchant to His Son," by George Horace Lorimer, which achieved such notable success during their serial publication in the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post; also, a popular edition of Walt Whitman's "Complete Prose Works," in one volume, uniform with their popular edition of "Leaves of Grass." With the exception of the sumptuous edition of his works in eight volumes, which G. P. Putnam's Sons are about to issue, by special arrangement with Small, Maynard & Company, in a limited edition for subscribers, these are the only authorized and complete editions of Whitman's writings. It is amusing to note that in an unauthorized and incomplete volume of Whitman's poems made up of material on which copyright has expired, the editor naively refers to the restraint of the copyright law in the following words: "For the errors of omission, conditions which I could not control are alone responsible, a fact which time will yet correct."

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & Co. will publish on October 4 Thomas Wentworth Higginson's "Life of Henry Wadsworth Longfellow" in the American Men of Letters Series; and Robert Southey's "Journal of a Tour in the Netherlands," of which the manuscript has only just been obtained for publication. A posthumous volume of Bret Harte's will also appear, containing a second series of "Condensed Novels—New Burlesques," which parody "Rupert of Hentzau," "The Christian," "Sherlock Holmes" and "David Harum;" also two new novels: "The Strongest Master," by Helen Choate Prince, a story dealing with labor problems; and "The Heart of the Doctor," by Mabel G. Foster, a story of the old North End of Boston, now given over to the Italians. For younger readers there will be issued "Under Colonial Colors," by Everett T. Tomlinson; and "Three Little Marys," by Nora Archibald Smith, who tells a story of an English, an Irish and a Scotch little Mary. "Captain Craig," a book of poems, by Edwin A. Robinson, completes the list for October 4.

THE ARTHUR H. CLARK COMPANY, Garfield Building, Cleveland, O., announce a series of monographs to be published under the general title of "The Historic Highways of America," by Archer Butler Hulbert, dealing with the history of America, as portrayed in the evolution of its highways of war, commerce and social expansion. The series will be divided as follows: (1) Paths of the Mound-Building Indians and Great Game Animals; (2) Indian Thoroughfares; (3) Washington's Road: the First Chapter of the Old French War; (4) Braddock's Road; (5) The Old Glade (Forbes's) Road; (6) Boone's Wilderness Road; (7) Portage Paths: the Keys of the Continent; (8) Military Roads of the Mississippi Basin; (9) Historic Waterways; (10) The Cumberland Road; (11 and 12) Pioneer Roads of America; (13 and 14) The Great American Canals; (15) The Future of Road-Making in America. The sixteenth volume will contain a comprehensive index. The first volume is about ready. The other volumes will be published at the rate of a volume every two months.

JAMES POTT & Co. have an interesting fall list, upon which "The Life and Works of Richard Brinsley Sheridan," in two volumes, stands out prominently. The volumes give a vivid picture of the times of Sheridan and of all the noted people of his day, and throw light upon the inspiration Sheridan received for his celebrated comedies, dramas, farces and poems. A new addition to the Photogravure Series will be "The Mediterranean: its storied cities and venerable ruins," by J. T. Bonney; and other books in preparation include "Ghetto Silhouettes," by the playwright and actor, David Warfield; "A Maid of Many Moods," by Vivian Sheard, in which the merry days of Shakespeare are made alive and real; "Builders of the Republic," by the author of "Famous Families of New York," a book telling of the twenty-five great men who made the United States; "Paris, 1789-1794," by J. G. Alger; "Five Great Painters of the Victorian Era," by Sir Wyke Bayliss; "Cromwell's Army," by C. H. Firth; "Louis XIV. and the Court of France in the 17th Century," in three volumes, and "Marie de Medicis, Queen of France," in three volumes, both by Julia Pardoe.

FUNK & WAGNALLS COMPANY have just ready Mrs. Craigie's ("John Oliver Hobbes") new novel, "Love and the Soul Hunters;" "The Needle's Eye," a novel, by Florence Morse Kingsley, which deals with the difficulties that beset a young man in his efforts to administer for the good of the people the trust of great riches which it has imposed upon him; "The Insane Root," an exciting novel, by Mrs. Campbell Praed, the basis of which is the legend of the mysterious virtue of the mandrake root; an American edition of "The Searchers," a novel by Mrs. Margaretta Byrde, which has been very successful in England; a dissertation on "The Ten Commandments and the Lord's Prayer," by Dr. F. S. Schenck, which is a revised edition of the author's previous work, "The Ten Commandments in the Nineteenth Century," with the addition of "The Lord's Prayer" portion; "The Lost Wedding Ring," a series of essays upon marriage, by the Rev. Cortland Myers, D.D., who treats the subject from a religious standpoint and illuminates it by numerous illustrations in prose and verse; also, "Sons of Glory," a book of "studies in genius," by a talented young psychologist of Italy, by name Adolfo Padovan, who combats the theory of Lombroso that genius is a form of insanity.

G. P. Putnam's Sons have in press the following fiction: "Typhoon," a new story by Joseph Conrad, author of "Tales of Unrest," etc.; "The Earth and the Fullness Thereof," a tale of modern Styria, by Peter Rosegger, translated by Frances E. Skinner; "The Sheep-Stealers," a romance of the west of England, by Violet Jacob; "The House Opposite: a Mystery," by Elizabeth Kent; "Lavender and Old Lace," a story of a quaint corner of New England, by Myrtle Reed, author of "Love Letters of a Musician;" "The Poet and Penelope," a delightful story by L. Parry Truscott; "Peak and Prairie" and "Pratt Portraits," thirteen stories from "A Colorado Sketch Book," and thirteen stories of New England life, by Anna Fuller, author of "A Literary Courtship," etc., old favorites in a new and more worthy dress; also, "The Boys of Waveney," a story of school-boy life in England, by Robert Leighton. They also announce the Hampshire edition of the works of Jane Austen, and a library edition of the earlier works of Miss Cary, including "Browning, Poet and Man: a Survey," "Tennyson, His Homes, His Friends, His Work," and "The Rossettis, Dante Gabriel and Christina." Of the limited edition of William Blake's illustrations to the Book of Job, Messrs. Putnam have secured a portion for the American market. This series of designs represent the most noteworthy productions of the famous artist. The designs have never before been reproduced in the size of the originals, or in any such manner as would give an adequate impression of the force and power of the artist's work.

Little, Brown & Co. have just ready "The Shadow of the Czar," the romantic story of Princess Barbara of the old Polish principality of Szernova, by John R. Carling, an author who, as the publishers assert, is as unknown to them as to the reading public at large, but whose fanciful story of love and adventure they predict will prove a popular one. They have also just ready the following juveniles: "Nathalie's Chum," by Anna Chapin Ray; "Foxy, the Faithful," by Lily F. Wesselhoeft; "On Guard! Against Tarleton and Tory," by John Preston True; and "Grandma's Girls," by Helen Morris. Their publications for the autumn include "American Literature in its Colonial and National Periods," by Professor Lorenzo Sears, of Brown University; "Glimpses of China and Chinese Homes," by Professor Edward S. Morse, author of "Japanese Homes and Their Surroundings;" "The Speeches and Other Writings of Daniel Webster, Hitherto Uncollected," (in three volumes;) "Retrospect and Prospect," eight critical essays by Captain Alfred Mahan; "The Struggle for a Continent," a one-volume Parkman, edited by Professor Pelham Edgar, of the University of Toronto; Katharine Prescott Wormeley's translation of Dumas's "The Speronara;" "The Spiritual Outlook," a survey of the religious life of our time as related to progress, by Willard Chamberlain Selleck; "Boston Days," a literary record by Lilian Whiting; "America in its Relations to the Great Epochs of History," by Wm. J. Mann; "First Hand Bits of Stable Lore," by Francis M. Ware, the director of horse shows; and "With a Saucepan Over the Sea," quaint recipes from foreign kitchens, by Adelaide Keen.

Thomas Nelson & Sons have just published the smaller size of the "American Standard Edition of the Revised Bible" in bourgeois type, which has met with general approbation in the press and among Bible scholars. The Popular Series of Nelson's Teachers' Bibles now contain the "Helps" arranged in alphabetical order, which is a decided advantage. The new edition of their Long Primer Self-Pronouncing Teachers' Bible, printed on Nelson's India paper, shows the highest perfection in Bible manufacture. Nelson's Sunday-School Scholars' Bible, with practical "Helps," and a new Bible catechism is specially designed for young people, and the "Helps" are written by prominent Sunday-school workers, and are edited by the Rev. Dr. Schauffler, a member of the International Sunday-School Lesson Committee. Their prayer and hymnal line is as large and varied as ever, and they have recently added some new and exquisite styles in the finest bindings. The New Century Library, printed on Nelson's India paper, now contains the complete works of Dickens and Thackeray, and the complete novels of Scott. The size of these volumes is only 4¼ x 6¼ inches, some of them contain 950 pages, while the paper is so thin that a volume is no thicker than an ordinary monthly magazine. There are also special sets beautifully bound in morocco and ooze calf, with cases to match. Uniform with the above they issue: Burns's "Poetical Works," Carlyle's "French Revolution," Tennyson's "Poems, 1830-1859," and Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress." Other volumes are in preparation. Their new gift-books include "A Fortune from the Sky," by Skelton Kuppord, author of "The Uncharted Island," etc.; "Sale's Sharpshooters, the Historical Records of a Very Irregular Corps," by Harold Avery; "Ralph Wynward," by H. Elrington; "Fallen Fortunes: being the adventures of a gentleman of quality in the days of Queen Anne," by E. Everett-Green; "Stanhope: a romance of the days of Cromwell," by E. L. Haverfield; "Two Little Travellers," by Ray Cunningham; "The Lost Squire of Inglewood, or, adventures in the caves of Robin Hood," by Dr. Johnson; "A Happy Failure," by Edith Dawson; also, a very choice line of "Toy Books" from 20 cents upward.

PICK-UPS.

MR. DOOLEY ON READING.—"Readin', me friend," says Mr. Dooley in the Century, "is talked about be all readin' people as though it was th' on'y thing that makes a man betther thin his neighbors. But th' thruth is that readin' is th' nex' thing this side iv goin' to bed f'r restin' th' mind. With mos' people it takes th' place iv wurruk. A man does n't think whin he's readin', or if he has to, th' book is no fun.

"Did ye iver have something to do that ye ought to do, but did n't want to, an' while ye was wishin' ye was dead, did ye happen to pick up a newspaper? Ye know what occurred. Ye did n't jus' skim through th' spoortin' intillygince an' th' crime news.

"Whin ye got through with thim, ye read th' other quarther iv th' pa-aper. Ye read about people ye niver heerd iv, an' happenin's ye did n't undhersthand—th' fashion notes, th' theatrical gossip, th' s'ciety news from Peoria, th' quotations on oats, th' curb market, th' rale-estate transfers, th' marredge licenses, th' death notices, th' wants ads, th' dhry-goods bargains, an' even th' iditoryals. Thin ye r-read thim over again, with a faint idee ye'd read thim befure. Thin ye yawned, studied th' design iv th' carpet, an' settled down to wurruk. Was ye exercisin' ye-er joynt intelleck while ye was readin'? No more thin if ye'd been whistlin' or writin' ye-er name on a pa-aper.

"If anny wan else but me come along they might say: 'What a mind Hinnissy has! He's always readin'.' But I wu'd kick th' book or pa-aper out iv ye'er hand, an' grab ye be th' collar an' cry, 'Up, Hinnissy, an' to wurruk!' f'r I'd know ye were loafin'. It seems like it, an' whin it comes out in talk sometimes, it sounds like it. It's a kind iv nearthought that looks ginooyne to the thoughtless, but ye can't get annything on it. Manny a man I've knowed has so doped himself with books that he'd stumble over a carpet-tack.

"Am I again' all books, says ye? I'm not. If I had money, I'd have all th' good lithrachoor iv th' wurruld on me table at this minyit. I might n't read it, but there it'd be so that anny iv me fri'nds c'u'd dhrop in an' help thimsilves if they did n't care f'r stimylants.

"I have no taste f'r readin', but I won't deny it's a good thing f'r thim that's addicted to it. In modheration, mind ye. In modheration, an' after th' chores is done. F'r as a fri'nd of Hogan says, 'Much readin' makes a full man,' an' he knew what he was talkin' about. An' do I object to th' pursuit iv lithrachoor? Oh, faith, no. As a pursuit 'tis fine, but it may be bad f'r anny wan that catches it."

MCCLURE, PHILLIPS & CO. recently received an order for "The Hound of Basker Bill." The same firm recently received from a magazine devoted to poultry interests a request for a review copy of Denslow's "Mother Goose," the editor writing that he thought the book would be "specially interesting to our constituency!"

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.

Under the heading "Books Wanted" book-trade subscribers are given the privilege of a free advertisement for books out of print, of five nonpareil lines exclusive of address, in any issue except special numbers, to an extent not exceeding 100 lines a year. If more than five lines are sent, the excess is at 10 cents a line, and amount should be inclosed. Bids for current books and such as may be easily had from the publishers, and repeated matter, as well as all advertisements from non-subscribers, must be paid for at the rate of 10 cents a line.

Under the heading "Books for Sale," the charge to subscribers and non-subscribers is 10 cents a nonpareil line for each insertion. No deduction for repeated matter.

All other small, undisplayed, advertisements will be charged at the uniform rate of 10 cents a nonpareil line. Eight words may be reckoned to the line.

Parties with whom we have no accounts must pay in advance, otherwise no notice will be taken of their communications.

A VOLUME OF MASTERLY PARODIES

Borrowed Plumes

By OWEN SEAMAN, author of "The Battle of the Bays." 16mo, $1.25.

Mr. Seaman, whose "Battle of the Bays" is already in its fourth edition, has been favorably compared with Calverley by critics on both sides of the Atlantic. It is doubtful whether he has a superior among living parodists. Borrowed Plumes opens with the droll idea of having the Elizabeth of the Letters visit the Elizabeth of the German Garden. The parodies that follow cover Mr. Dooley, Hall Caine's Eternal City, Harland's Cardinal's Snuff Box, Ellen Thorneycroft Fowler's Double Thread, John Oliver Hobbes' Robert Orange, Mrs. Ward's Robert Elsmere, and works by Hewlett, Henry James, Sir John Lubbock, Maeterlinck, Mrs. Meynell, etc.

Medieval Europe

By CH. BEMONT and G. MONOD. Translated by MARY SLOAN. Edited by Prof. G. B. ADAMS. With Ten Maps in Color. 12mo, $1.60 net.

A second edition of this history was sent to press three days after the first was in the publisher's hands. This work is generally considered the best on the period.

A New Edition, uniform with the Author's Prisoner of Zenda, Rupert of Hentzau, and Father Stafford, of

The Dolly Dialogues

By ANTHONY HOPE. Containing the four additional "Dialogues." With a frontispiece by CHRISTY. 12mo, $1.50.

THE NEW PHOTOGRAVURE BOOKS

JAPAN AND HER PEOPLE

By ANNA C. HARTSHORNE

Illustrated with 50 photogravures. 2 vols. Crown 8vo. Cloth extra, gilt tops; in cloth box.....Net, $4 00
Three-quarters crushed morocco, gilt top.....Net, 8 00
Edition De Luxe, limited to 150 copies.....Net, 10 00

Miss Hartshorne writes of Japan and the Japanese people from an intimate knowledge of her subject at first hands, having been a resident of the country and brought closely into touch with native life. The book will take rank as a thorough exposition of the Island Kingdom and is written in a charming style. No more attractive holiday book will be issued this season.

VIENNA AND THE VIENNESE

By MARIA HORNOR LANSDALE

Illustrated with 25 photogravures and a map. Crown 8vo. Cloth extra, gilt top; in cloth box.....Net, $2 40
Full crushed Levant morocco, gilt edges.....Net, 5 60

Vienna is in many respects the most fascinating and brilliant city in Europe. Miss Lansdale has handled the theme with her accustomed skill, making one of the most readable books of the year. The fine photogravures are quite equal to the others that have made the whole series so noteworthy and popular.

A COMPANION VOLUME TO "CRANKISMS"

WHIMLETS

By S. SCOTT STINSON, pictured by Clare Victor Dwiggins. Square 16mo. With 100 full-page illustrations.....Net, $0 80

Mr. Stinson has contributed 100 rhymed conceits, which Mr. Dwiggins illustrates in the very clever style which has made him a name in connection with Mr. Matthewman's "Crankisms." This little volume will be one of the books of the year.

SONGS AND STORIES FROM TENNESSEE

By JOHN TROTWOOD MOORE, author of "A Summer Hymnal." 12mo. Illustrated..... $1 25

This volume contains Mr. Moore's famous story, "Ole Mistis," and many others of equal merit, with some of the poems which in fugitive form have found so many admirers.

"A Summer Hymnal" is selling with gathering popularity, and the many readers who have been charmed by it will want this book also.

EUROPEAN AND JAPANESE GARDENS

Edited by GLENN BROWN, Secy. American Institute of Architects. 145 illustrations of the representative gardens of Italy, England, France, and Japan, accompanying scholarly papers upon Italian Gardens, by Prof. A. D. F. HAMLIN, School of Architecture, Columbia University.

French Gardens, by JOHN GALEN HOWARD, Architect of the University of California.

English Gardens, by R. CLIPSTON STURGIS, Architect, Boston.

Japanese Gardens, by K. HONDA, of the Japanese Horticultural Society.

180 pages, text and illustrations, small quarto. Cloth..... $2 00

The edition of this book is limited to 2000, more than half of which have already been disposed of.

COFFEE: Its History, Classification and Description

By JOSEPH M. WALSH. 12mo. Cloth extra. Illustrated.....Net, $2 00

TEA: Its History and Mystery

By JOSEPH M. WALSH. 12mo. Cloth extra. Illustrated.....Net, $2 00

TEA BLENDING AS A FINE ART

By JOSEPH M. WALSH. 12mo. Cloth extra. Illustrated.....Net, $2 00

These three handbooks, by an expert upon tea and coffee, are the only works of the kind to be had and are authoritative upon the subjects. To the dealer in these commodities they are invaluable.

HENRY T. COATES & CO., Publishers, Philadelphia

Fall Announcements, 1902

CHILDREN'S DIET IN HOME AND SCHOOL

With classified recipes and menus. A reference book for parents, nurses, teachers, women's clubs and physicians. By LOUISE E. HOGAN, author of "How to Feed Children," "A Study of a Child," etc., etc. 16mo. Cloth.....Net, $0 50

Mrs. Hogan writes with special authority upon children's food, and this little book should be in the hands of every one having the care of a child. Parents will find it of especial value.

KENT FORT MANOR

A Novel. By WILLIAM HENRY BABCOCK, author of "The Tower of Wye." Griffin Series. 12mo. Illustrated..... $1 00

The scene of Mr. Babcock's latest novel is laid in the same locality as in his previous work, but the time is of the Civil War. Some of his characters are descendants of that William Claiborne who figures so picturesquely in "The Tower of Wye." There is a curious psychological study of "inherited memory" involved in the plot.

THE ARCHIEREY OF SAMARA

A Russian Novel. By HENRY ILIOWIZI, author of "The Weird Orient," etc. Griffin Series. 12mo. Illustrated..... $1 00

Mr. Iliowizi writes with graphic power in depicting the conditions which surround the Russian population in which he finds the types for his characters in this story. No more life-like presentation of these people and their hardships can be found in recent literature; and the story is one of thrilling and absorbing interest.

Fall Juveniles

MOLLIE AND THE UNWISEMAN

By JOHN KENDRICK BANGS. Illustrated by 8 full-page drawings by Albert Levering and 50 text cuts by Clare Victor Dwiggins. 12mo. Cloth. ("The Children's Library.").....Net, $1 00

This is conceived and written in Mr. Bangs's happiest vein, and will find many grown-up readers as well as among the children, for whom it is intended. The illustrations make it a unique as well as handsome book, and it ought to be the most popular juvenile of the season.

FOUR LITTLE INDIANS

By ELLA MARY COATES. Illustrated by Will Hart Richardson. 12mo. Cloth.....Net, $0 80

Miss Coates writes for boys and girls alike, the amusing and entertaining adventures of a family of little folks whose doings will interest and please the children.

TWO BOOKS BY EDWARD S. ELLIS, Author of the "Deerfoot" Series, etc.

DORSEY, THE YOUNG INVENTOR

JIM AND JOE

Each, 12mo. Cloth. Illustrated.....Net, $0 80

HARRY CASTLEMON'S NEW BOOK

THE HAUNTED MINE

12mo. Illustrated.....Net, $0 80

THE LAST BOOK BY HORATIO ALGER, Author of "Ragged Dick," "Tattered Tom," etc.

ANDY GRANT'S PLUCK

12mo. Illustrated.....Net, $0 80

This is the last volume left in MS. by Mr. Alger, and will be found equal to his other celebrated works.

BIOGRAPHY AND HISTORY

JAMES THE SIXTH AND THE GOWRIE MYSTERY. By ANDREW LANG. With 2 Photogravures and other Illustrations and Plans. 8vo. [In the press

This book tries to throw new light, from contemporary manuscripts, hitherto unpublished, on the unsolved problem of the "Gowrie Conspiracy" (1600) and on its sequel in the affair of Logan of Restalrig in 1608-1609. One factor in the problem is definitely settled, and the author trusts that he has demonstrated the innocence of the king.

Reproductions of handwriting in the matter of the disputed plot-letters, portraits and pictures of Falkland Palace, Restalrig, Dirleton, and Fastcastle are given.

THE ADVENTURES OF CAPTAIN JOHN SMITH: Captain of Two Hundred and Fifty Horse, and sometime President of Virginia. By E. P. ROBERTS. With 3 Maps and 17 Illustrations. Crown 8vo, pp. xiv.-307, $1.50 net. By mail $1.65. [Nearly ready

LETTERS OF DOROTHEA, PRINCESS LIEVEN, during her residence in London, 1812-1834. Edited by LIONEL G. ROBINSON. With 2 Photogravure Portraits. 8vo, pp. xxii.-406, $5.00. [Nearly ready

These letters were, with one or two exceptions, addressed to Princess Lieven's brother, General Alexander Benckendorff, who, after a brilliant military career, was, on the accession of Nicholas I. to the throne, appointed to a post of confidence which, until his death, kept him in close relations with the Emperor. In his position as Chief of the Third Division he was also practically in charge of the political police system of the Russian Empire.

MEMOIRS OF SIR EDWARD BLOUNT, K.C.B., Etc., 1815-1902. Edited by STUART J. REID, Author of "The Life and Times of Sydney Smith," etc. With 3 Photogravure Plates. 8vo, pp. viii.-308, $4.00. [Just ready

Sir Edward Blount's reminiscences open with the return of Lord Anglesey, after the Battle of Waterloo, and practically end with the death of Queen Victoria. He describes his life as a schoolboy at St. Mary's College, Oscott, under Dr. Walsh and Monsignor Weedall, his life as a Foreign Office clerk, and as an attaché in Rome and Paris in the reigns of George IV. and William IV. and his subsequent career in the French capital as an English banker and as a pioneer of railways in France. The book throws vivid side-lights on the reign of Louis Philippe and the Revolution of 1848, the early days of the Second Empire, the Mexican War, and the Siege of Paris. Sir Edward Blount was Her Majesty's Consul during the closing dramatic weeks of the investment of Paris, and the letters which he despatched by balloon to his wife are freely quoted, and give a realistic picture of the privations of the beleaguered city when the advance of the German Army cut off all communication with the outer world. The book also contains many interesting details about political and social celebrities, railway progress in France, club life, etc.

THE LAND OF THE LATINS. By ASHTON R. WILLARD. Author of "Modern Italian Art." With 11 Illustrations from Photographs. Crown 8vo, $1.40 net [In the press

This book presents various interesting aspects of Italian life. The author draws a picture of modern social life at Rome, which is coming to be recognized as one of the most attractive social centres of Europe. He takes the reader into the studios and the theatres; the Italian country-house is described and life at one of the principal seaside resorts. Besides the more general views of Italian society the author gives some personal impressions of the more interesting figures in modern Italian life—such as Leo XIII., Queen Margherita, the Duchess of Genoa, Eleonora Duse, Salvini, and other persons of prominence.

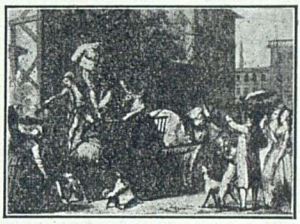
The True History of the American Revolution



These are the real facts of the days of 1776. Mr. Fisher has some things to tell about the conduct of the War of the Revolution, its chief figures, and the reasons for its outcome, which will startle every reader of American history. The great struggle is treated in the same candid fashion as are the characters and lives of the Americans who are included in the widely-known "True Biographies."

By Sydney George Fisher

Social Life in the Early Republic

Miss Wharton's wide knowledge of the practically untouched period following on Colonial and Revolutionary years, and her ability to make us see the men and women of past times as they really were, are here given the most interesting expression. The volume promises to rival in popularity her "Salons Colonial and Republican," and "Through Colonial Doorways."

Colored frontispiece. Profusely illustrated. Crown 8vo. Decorated cloth, gilt top, Net . . . $3.00* Half levant, Net . . . $6.00*

By Anne H. Wharton

¶ Few books of a biographical character have had the popularity of those known as the True Biographies. Besides Mr. Fisher's volume here noted he has also written The True Benjamin Franklin and The True William Penn. The late Paul Leicester Ford was the author of the initial volume of the series, The True George Washington, which earned much attention. William E. Curtis is the author of The True Thomas Jefferson, published last year.

¶ Miss Wharton's books are notable for the vividness of their portraiture. In her Salons Colonial and Republican, Through Colonial Doorways, and Colonial Days and Dames she began this review of social history, and in Heirlooms in Miniatures revived other graceful figures of the past.

¶ Of kindred interest is the finely illustrated Famous American Belles of the Nineteenth Century, in which Miss Virginia Tatnall Peacock sketches the characters and lives of distinguished women.

The Ancestor

The Kissing Walk.

New York Old and New

Its story as told by its landmarks. The writer is the author of "Rambles in Colonial Byways," and "Washington: The Capital City," etc., and this is the first authoritative, comprehensive and at the same time readable book yet put out on New York City itself. The volume is handsomely illustrated with many reproductions from photographs, old prints, etc., and contains a wealth of new material.

By Dr. T. Lamb Phipson

¶ History books are more entertaining to-day than they used to be. It has been shown that accuracy does not always depend upon formality. Rufus Rockwell Wilson is one of the writers who has demonstrated this. Beginning with his Rambles in Colonial Byways, in which he gave many glimpses of famous men, he took up in Washington: The Capital City the story of the most beautiful as well as one of the most picturesque of American communities. Indeed that volume was the first of its kind on the subject and has been received with general critical approval.

¶ Confessions of a Violinist reminds us of Famous Violinists and Fine Violins and Voice and Violin, titles which speak for the contents of the books; also of a third book by Dr. Phipson of speculative interest, Researches of the Past and Present into the History of the Earth's Atmosphere.

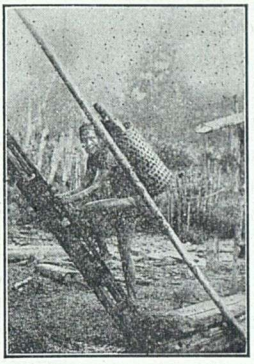
Home Life of the Borneo Head-Hunters



Mr. Furness writes from many months of life among the people he describes. He penetrated parts of the island which had never before been explored by a white man, and his experiences are as valuable for the light they throw upon the customs and surroundings, relations and lore of the savages, as they are interesting for their novelty and excitement and the fresh enthusiasm and simplicity with which they are narrated. The book is illustrated by eighty-one photogravures and other photographic reproductions, and is handsomely bound.

¶ The literature of Musical Art offers such a rich field that we can do no more than mention a few recent and well-liked publications. Besides the first volume of Mr. Goepp's Symphonies, there is Music and Its Masters, by O. B. Boise, formerly of Berlin, and now a Musical Director in the Peabody Institute at Baltimore.

¶ The Life of Wagner is an authoritative book which has been widely quoted, by Alfred Stewart Chamberlain; Stories of Famous Songs, a book of more than the interest of curiosity, by S. J. A. Fitzgerald; and Famous Violinists and Fine Violins, and Voice in Violin, by Dr. Phipson, mentioned on another page as the author of Confessions of a Violinist. Also The Philosophy of the Human Voice, an able work by Dr. James Rush; and The Opera, which in the form of a new edition furnishes a sketch of every work of importance in the modern repertory. The author of this last book is R. A. Streatfeild.

Historic Houses of New Jersey

The story of the old dwellings which have played important parts in the history of a State peculiarly rich in colonial and revolutionary souvenirs. Chambers's Cyclopaedia of English Literature

A history, critical and biographical, of authors in the English tongue, from the earliest times till the present day, with specimens of their writings. American literature is treated by competent pens, and the work, which has been pronounced by scholars the best in its field, in its present form is very largely improved, both in its arrangement and its comprehensive and exact character. The illustrations are carefully selected facsimiles and over three hundred portraits executed expressly for the work. The editors include: Dr. Stopford Brooke, Mr. Austin Dobson, Mr. Edmund Gosse, Mr. Andrew Lang, Mr. Sydney Lee and Professor Saintsbury.

Illustrated. Volumes I. and II. ready; Volume III. shortly. Three Volumes. Imperial octavo. 800 pages. Cloth, per volume, Net $5.00*

Edited by David Patrick

¶ Mr. Mills's book brings to mind the charming volumes of Miss Wharton upon Revolutionary and Colonial biography and history touched upon on another page, also Mr. Wilson's Rambles in Colonial Byways, and besides these A Literary Pilgrimage, Literary Shrines, Literary Haunts and Homes of American Authors, and Literary Rambles at Home and Abroad, all by Dr. Theodore F. Wolfe.

¶ Chambers's Cyclopædia of English Literature suggests the standard and widely known Lippincott's Biographical Dictionary and Chambers's Encyclopædia (new edition), both of which books are to-day at the very head of literature in their separate fields. It might also be proper to mention in this relation Allibone's Dictionary of Authors, the reputation of which for comprehensiveness and accuracy is everywhere known; likewise Great Authors of All Ages, by the same Dr. Allibone; and Allibone's Poetical Quotations and Prose Quotations.

Worcester's New Primary Dictionary

This is not a revision of any former edition of Worcester's Primary Dictionary, but is an entirely new book. The vocabulary is very full and great care has been exercised in the selection of words. The definitions are clear and concise. The varied spelling of words is given, as also are irregular and foreign plurals. Correct pronunciation is indicated by syllabification and by diacritical marks. When the pronunciation cannot thus be clearly indicated the words are spelled phonetically.

¶ Among volumes dealing with art an important contribution is The Works of William Hogarth, containing the life of the artist, with anecdotal descriptions of his pictures by John Ireland and John Nichols, in three volumes, handsomely bound.

¶ Elements of Art Criticism, by G. W. Samson, is a treatise on the principles of art, together with an historic survey of the methods of art execution and its various manifestations. It is a useful handbook for amateurs and for artists.

¶ Among the most successful reproductions of a great painter's canvases are the half-hundred photogravures in Fifty Masterpieces of Anthony Van Dyck. The work is a large quarto.

¶ Besides Summits of Success, James Burnley has written a book which is full of contemporary interest and stimulus to ambition. Its title is Millionaires and Kings of Enterprise, and its subjects are almost all Americans—engineers, merchants, shipbuilders, financiers, and lawyers.

Two Thousand Miles on an Automobile

An extremely interesting account of a journey on American roads, of its delights, adventures, and mishaps. The book tells all about running and caring for an automobile and makes plain and unprejudiced comparison of the advantages and disadvantages of different models and makes. By an enthusiastic automobile driver. VerBeck's illustrations, eighteen in number, are fully in the spirit of the narrative.

¶ The automobile is never likely to displace the coach of the amateur driver. Four-in-hand driving to-day is as fashionable as ever. One of its masters among gentlemen was the late Fairman Rogers. His superb volume of over five hundred pages, A Manual of Coaching, with its profusion of full-page plates and engravings, will probably long remain the most authoritative and interesting review and reference-work upon the subject.

¶ Of equal authority in its field is Cricket in Many Climes, by the famous Englishman, P. F. Warner. There are seventy-two illustrations from photographs in this book, which is appropriately bound.

¶ The Night Side of London naturally suggests the gay city across the channel, and there is a book on this which is absolutely unique of its kind, Bohemian Paris. W. C. Morrow wrote it from notes by Edouard Cucuel. Over a hundred spirited drawings by Cucuel illuminate every phase of modern French life, and are one of the chief attractions of the volume.

The Book of Beauty

(The Era of King Edward VII.)

A superb work of art, containing over fifty exquisite full-page and many smaller photogravure portraits, including a hitherto unpublished picture of Queen Alexandra, and a series of pictures of the beauties of King Edward's Court, including several American women. The pictures are reproduced from celebrated paintings. The letter-press, which tells the story of fashionable life and gives views of the court from the inside, is contributed by Rudyard Kipling, Sir Edwin Arnold, Max Pemberton, and others equally well known, and the volume is one of the richest and most distinguished works of the kind ever issued.

Arms and Armour

(In Antiquity and Middle Ages)

English Heraldry

The first of these books is a new edition of the translation from the French of M. P. Lacombe, and contains also a description of modern weapons, a preface, notes, and an additional chapter on arms and armor in England. There are many different illustrations of specimens from notable collections of arms.

The second book is especially intended for the use of heraldic students. It reviews heraldry from its earliest days, touching upon its history, vocabulary, insignia, supporters, orders, colleges, and the development of its study. There are four hundred and sixty wood cuts in the text engraved especially for the work.

¶ There are many beautiful women also in Miss Wharton's Heirlooms in Miniatures, of which we have spoken, and which is lavishly illustrated with fine reproductions and portraits.

¶ Miss Peacock's Famous American Belles of the Nineteenth Century, with its frontispiece in colors and twenty full-page illustrations, may also be mentioned again in this connection. Perhaps, too, The Diamond Necklace, by Franz Funck-Brentano, an astonishing narrative of the famous necklace which played so large a part in one of the most romantic chapters of French history has a place here because of the notable men and women who figure in its pages.

¶ Men and Women of the French Renaissance, by Edith Sichel, which enjoyed one of the largest sales among recent history books, is another volume which will well repay the reader who would know more of notable personalities.

The Modern Conjurer

Trewey as a Chinaman.

An elaborately illustrated volume upon the new magic, explaining both by text and drawings the most entertaining tricks of such masters of conjuring as Maskelyne, Trewey, Bertram, Patrice, Kennard, and others. The four hundred illustrations are from photographs of actual tricks, and the book is intensely interesting and is absolutely unique in its field.

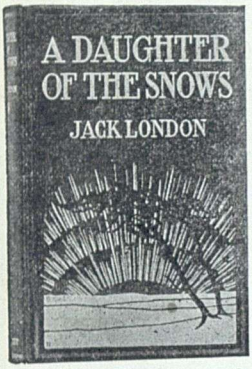
¶ Out-of-doors sports have laid under contribution a large number of enthusiastic writers.

¶ Besides Mr. Warner's book, Cricket in Many Climes, previously mentioned, there is Paul E. Stevenson's A Deep-Water Voyage and By Way of Cape Horn, two of the most entertaining narratives of experience on American ships on long voyages that have ever been written. Indeed, Mr. Stevenson's books are well worthy of a place beside Dana's classic.

¶ There, too, is Turner-Turner's volume The Giant Fish of Florida, with its extraordinary photographs of fish in action. Also Isabel Savoy's A Sportswoman in India, and Sir William Conway's The Alps from End to End, and Hugh L. Willoughby's Across the Everglades.

¶ To speak of more technical work we may refer with confidence to Griffin's Nautical Series, with its volumes on seamanship, sailing, and like subjects.

Novels



A Daughter of the Snows

A strong and extremely dramatic story. Its plot is unique, its characters boldly drawn, and the love interest intense. The first full length novel from a writer whose tales, "The Son of the Wolf," and "The God of His Fathers," etc., have won him much popularity as well as recognition from the first critics. The book is beautifully illustrated in colors from drawings by F. C. Yohn, and is handsomely bound.

By Jack London

Illustrated. 12mo. Decorated cloth . . . $1.50

Woven with the Ship

Mr. Brady's thousands of readers will derive fresh pleasure from this his new book. It has an intensely interesting plot and something happens on every page. The novel from which it takes title is the most sympathetic love story he has yet written, and the other tales are in the same spirit. It is illustrated with stunning drawings by Christy, Leyendecker, Glackens, Parkhurst, and Crawford, and has a striking cover design in colors.

By Cyrus Townsend Brady

Illustrated. 12mo. Decorated cloth . . . $1.50

¶ Here is an armful of fiction, every volume of which will well repay the reader who wants to be entertained with a story out of the common. Mrs. Voynich contributes Jack Raymond, the most startling as well as the latest book by the author of The Gadfly. This book has sold by the thousands. George Moore, perhaps the most conspicuous figure in serious English fiction to-day, is the author of Sister Teresa. Of That Mainwaring Affair, by A. Maynard Barbour, we need scarcely do more than mention the title. It is liberally illustrated and has sold into eight editions already.

¶ A lively French story, with some astonishing chapters on French manners and life in the Quartier, is Mlle. Fouchette. It also is illustrated with capital drawings. Another good novel is Graystone, a quiet story of to-day, by William Jasper Nicolls, which will please all those who want an old-fashioned love-tale.

The Highway of Fate

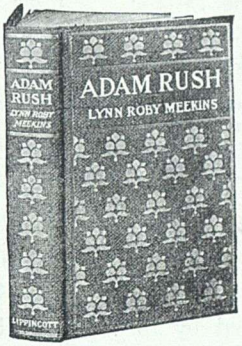
Miss Carey's new book is the best thing she has done. The love story is fascinating. Here is the charm of sentiment and character which mark the large number of novels that have won for her high place.

12mo. Decorated cloth. $1.50

By Rosa Nouchette Carey

Adam Rush

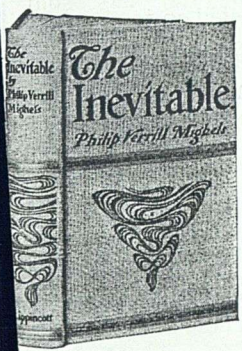
A new and interesting figure in a love story with the charm of country and village life in every chapter. The character of the new Adam Rush is an absorbing piece of work. By an author well-known to many thousands of readers by his shorter writings.



By Lynn Roby Meekins

12mo. Frontispiece by Francis Day. Decorated cloth . . . $1.50

The Inevitable



The hero of Mr. Mighels's book is an exceedingly interesting and good-looking young fellow of twenty-four years, whose parentage is shrouded in mystery. His love story has the fascination of uncertainty from the very beginning.

With frontispiece in colors by John Wolcott Adams.

y Philip Verrill Mighels

12mo. Decorated cloth . . . $1.50

The Last Buccaneer

A rattling novel by the author of "The Master Beggars." Mr. Cornford has steadily advanced. This new novel of adventure shows fine imagination.

L. Cope Cornford

12mo. Cloth $1.50

¶ An old favorite, Dorothy Fox, by Louisa Parr, is very much the same sort of story, though entirely different in scene; The Herb of Grace, by the always popular Rosa N. Carey; Glass and Gold, a psychological study of power, by J. O. G. Duffy, and The Lifting of a Finger, a dainty conceit and a curious complication by Ina Brevoort Roberts.

¶ Marr'd In Making and Miss Carmichael's Conscience are two clever stories by the author of Our Lady of the Beeches.

¶ Now, too, Marie Corelli's famous Barabbas is to be had in Christmas covers and with illustrations in colors and photogravure by Marchetti, the famous French artist. Captain King's stirring novel The Deserter; a spirited story of adventure by John Finnemore, The Lover Fugitives, illustrated; and Chevrons, a sparkling love-story of West Point, by B. H. L., are also to be commended.

The Story of a Scout

An exciting tale of adventure and intrigue on the French and Spanish border during the days of Wellington's campaign. By the author of "The Red Men of the Dusk," "The Lover Fugitives," and other novels of adventure. There are eight pictures. Illustrated. 12mo. Decorated cloth . . . $1.50

By John Finnemore

Breachley—Black Sheep

Another stirring story of the South Seas by the author of "By Reef and Palm," "The Tapu of Banderah," and other tales. Stamped by an intensely dramatic imagination. 12mo. Decorated cloth, gilt top $1.50

By Louis Becke

Love and Louisa

The latest novel of a writer whose books, "The Fault of One," "A Faithful Traitor," "My Pretty Jane," and "The Spell of Ursula" will be recalled immediately. 12mo. Decorated cloth, Net . $1.50

By Effie Adelaide Rowlands

A Blaze of Glory

A new novel by an author whose thousands of readers attest to her continued popularity. This is one of her strongest and brightest stories. 12mo. Cloth $1.25

By John Strange Winter

Gentleman Garnet

A tale of old Tasmania by a popular novelist. The vivid descriptions of life in penal settlements are not the least interesting portion of Mr. Vogel's powerful story of life in its unusual ways. 12mo. Decorated Cloth . . . $1.00 Paper . 50 cents

By Harry B. Vogel

¶ The best novel by B. M. Croker, a story of India, is a new one, The Cat's-Paw. Katharine Tynan's latest Irish love-story is That Sweet Enemy.

¶ The title of a collection of really good tales of life at our big universities, by authors who are well known, is Stories of the Colleges. A piece of imaginative work in Guy Boothby's best style, Farewell, Nikola, illustrated, should likewise be called to attention.

¶ Louis Becke is the author of a number of other capital books of adventure. Any of the following tales may be relied on to give entertainment: By Reef and Palm and His Native Wife, The Ebbing of the Tide, The Tapu of Banderah, and Yorke, the Adventurer.

¶ John Strange Winter's novels make a long list. Here are a few of the most popular: A Name to Conjure With, A Magnificent Young Man, Into An Unknown World, Heart and Sword, and Aunt Johnnie.

New Editions

The Compleat Angler

(Winchester Edition)

The most beautiful and sympathetic issue of Izaak Walton's masterpiece yet seen. The work also contains Charles Cotton's "How to Angle for a Trout and Grayling in a Clear Stream." It holds likewise an essay by Sir Edward Gray, Bart. There are numerous etchings by William Strang and E. Y. Cameron. Printed on special paper with wide margins, in large type of clear face, and furnished with illuminated title-page, book-marker, and index.

Izaak Walton.

The Old Court Suburb

The introduction and notes by Austin Dobson add to this exquisitely quaint work just the information required to know Kensington in its historical perspective,—to bridge over the time between the old court suburb of Leigh Hunt's day and that part of London in the present century. The illustrations are by Railton, Sullivan, and Shepperson.

Illustrated. Two volumes. Large square 12mo. Cloth. Decorated in gold, Net . $12.50

Edited by Austin Dobson

Also, large paper edition, limited to one hundred and fifty copies. Two volumes, numbered and signed by the artists.

Net . . . $35.00

¶ Walton's classic brings to mind other books on angling, and of these we can heartily recommend the newest, The Giant Fish of Florida, to which we have already alluded. Mr. Turner's text is capital, but the astonishing pictures of fish under water and in action will first attract attention. "Rarely," says the Chicago Post, "has there been placed in the hands of the sportsmen such a sumptuous volume."

¶ Akin to The Compleat Angler in its enthusiasm for out-door life and its beautiful dress is Gilbert White's Natural History and Antiquities of Selborne, edited by R. Bowdler Sharp, LL.D., of the British Museum, to which is joined a Garden Kalendar, with introduction by the Very Rev. Dean Hole.

¶ This edition of the Compleat Angler, which is limited to two hundred and eight numbered copies, is superbly illustrated and appropriately bound.

J. B. Lippincott Company: Autumn Books and other Good Books

The Thousand and One Nights

By R. A. Streatfeild

¶ We have most of the English novelists in editions of uniform binding, and printed in a style which makes them especially suitable for the libraries of those who will have only books which satisfy the artistic sense.

¶ A new library edition of George Eliot's Complete Works is in 10 volumes, illustrated with photogravures; the Novels of Thackeray, in handsome bindings, are also to be had in 24 volumes, bound in cloth, half calf, or three-quarters calf, and fully illustrated.

¶ Edgar Allan Poe's Complete Works in 8 volumes, illustrated with twenty-four photogravures, have been very well received, and the volumes are truly delightful. The Victoria edition of Sir Walter Scott's Novels, in 25 volumes, has been not less popular.

¶ In this connection we also call attention to the fine English editions alluded to on the opposite page. We will be glad to furnish a full descriptive pamphlet of these and other fine editions.

The Pilgrim's Progress

A new issue of Bennett's Bunyan, widely known to scholars. Printed on laid paper in the most finished style. This is the first special edition of a presentation of Bunyan which is unequalled. Bennett's illustrations are powerful and yet subtle. The preface is Charles Kingsley's.

Illustrated. Crown 8vo. Decorated cloth, gilt top . . $1.50
Three-quarters morocco . . . $3.50

Mother and Child

A book for the use of the mother. It does not supplant the doctor, but assists him. It supplies common sense advise upon the care of the mother before the baby comes. It tells her what to eat and wear and the exercise she should take. It gives plain directions for the dress and feeding of the child during infancy and childhood, and treatment of common ailments and accidents. Written in simple language.

¶ People like their copies of standard works in bindings which are better than those of the usual library books. To these we offer a series of fine English Editions at a moderate price. The books in cover, paper, printing, and arrangement will satisfy both the eye and hand. We mention some of them :

¶ Boccaccio, in 4 volumes ; Cervantes, in 6 volumes ; Lamb, in 6 volumes ; Poe, in 8 volumes ; Rousseau, in 4 volumes ; Smollett, in 12 volumes ; Richardson, in 20 volumes ; Ainsworth, in 20 volumes ; Arabian Nights, in 6 volumes ; The Heptameron, in 5 volumes ; Sainte-Beuve, in 3 volumes.

¶ All of these in cloth and half morocco, many of them illustrated, and all from authoritative texts.

¶ On the next page are noted some boys' and girls' books. The stories are told by authors whose names you will immediately recognize, and we heartily recommend each and every one of them.

Jerry Dodds—Millionaire

A capital yarn of schoolboys and of the fun and mystery surrounding the experiences of a certain lad. We heartily recommend this story. It is illustrated by Harold Coffing.

By H. Barrow-North

Illustrated. 12mo. Decorated cloth $1.25

"The Professor gripped him by the collar."

Jack and Black

A story of boy life by the author of those popular books, "The Spy in School," "Through Thick and Thin," "Out of Bounds," etc., etc. Part of this story is laid in scenes that will be new to Mr. Home's readers and which will make him many new friends.

By Andrew Home

Illustrated. 12mo. Decorated cloth . . . $1.25

The Rebel of the School

A charming story for girls by one of the most liked writers for young people, the author of "Daddy's Girl."

By L. T. Meade

Illustrated. 12mo. Decorated cloth . . . $1.50

A Plucky Girl

Another clever and entertaining story by the author of "A Popular Girl." Relating the interesting adventures of Miss Nell. Six capital drawings are by Jessie Macgregor.

By May Baldwin

Illustrated. 12mo. Decorated cloth . . . $1.50

¶ The Lost Gold of the Montezumas, by W. O. Stoddard: Trooper Ross, and Signal Butte, and From School to Battlefield, by General Charles King: Captain Chap, and The Young Master of Hyson Hall, by Frank P. Stockton; Brahmin's Treasure, by G. A. Henty; The Belt of Seven Totems, by Kirk Munroe; The Cruise of the Pretty Polly, by W. Clark Russell.

¶ For girls we suggest Amy Blanchard's Girls Together, Two Girls, and Betty of Wye; Mrs. Molesworth's stories; and Elizabeth Wetherill's volumes, Queechy, and Wide, Wide World.

¶ By Mrs. Laura T. Meade, The Rebel of the School and A Very Naughty Girl, etc., are entertaining reading.

¶ Ouida's stories for children are also good, and may safely be offered. Besides these there are a hundred others, any one of which is sure to be liked.

Gabriel Tolliver

By

JOEL CHANDLER HARRIS

The First Complete Novel by the Famous Creator of "Uncle Remus"

THE scene of Mr. Harris's charming romance is laid in Georgia, at the troublous period of reconstruction. Not only is the masterly style and kindly humor of the author's short stories here reproduced, but many of the characters make their re-entry on a larger stage. $1.50

Thoroughbreds

A Romance of Men Women, and Horses

By W. A. FRASER

IN this novel, the author, himself a turfman of long experience, shows us the race-course nd those whose lives centre about it as they ally are. There is no glossing over the evils of the sport of kings." Nevertheless Mr. Fraser ows us that there are high principles and noble eals, as well as meanness and treachery, in the cing game. The story has a swing that carries ou with it like the rush of a hard-fought race.

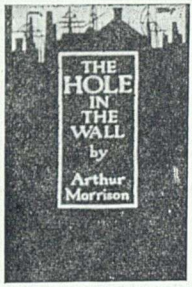
ANNOUNCEMENT OF AUTUMN FICTION

The Hole in the Wall

By Arthur Morrison

Author of "Tales of Mean Streets," "A Child of the Jago," etc.



This is a story of the London slums that is neither revolting nor pessimistic. Grim enough it is, but its grimness is relieved by the central characters, Captain Nat, the old, fighting ex-riverman and his little grandson, Stephen, as quaint and lovable a pair of partners as ever warmed the heart of a reader.

Price $1.50

The Banner of Blue

By S. R. Crockett

Author of "The Firebrand," "The Sticket Minister," etc.

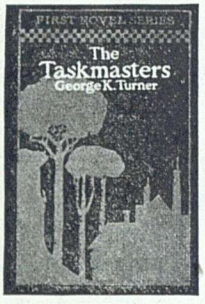
This is a new version of the parable of the prodigal son. Against the sombre background of the Disruption Period in Scotland Mr. Crockett draws with a master-hand two brilliantly colored love-stories, the one intense to its tragic end, the other delightful in its quaint Scotch humor.

Price $1.50

THE FIRST NOVEL SERIES

The Taskmasters

By George K. Turner



"The Taskmasters" pictures a New England that has never appeared in literature before, and which is, after all, the typical and dominating New England of modern times. In the great manufacturer, ruling like a feudal baron his town-full of employees, Mr. Turner finds a figure significant, picturesque and singularly unknown to art.

Price $1.25

The Ragged Edge

By John T. McIntyre

"The Ragged Edge" is a stirring story of ward politics and of the ward's social life; bosses and heelers and pugilists are the shining lights of the balls as of the primaries; withal the life of the ward centres in much-loved homes and is moulded by universal human passions. Such material is to be found in every newspaper, but Mr. McIntyre takes us into the heart of his world as no one has done before.

"The most winsome little heroine in contemporary fiction."

Emmy Lou
Her Book & Heart
By George Madden Martin
Illustrated by C. L. Hinton

The Record of Emmy Lou's School Days from the First Reader up through the High School

In these stories Mrs. Martin has done two very notable things. First she has created the most lovable little girl in contemporary fiction. Secondly, she has drawn the first faithful and sympathetic picture of American public-school life. The skill with which she has sketched the teachers by whom Emmy Lou passes in her ascent of the "Readers" would alone make the reputation of the book. But Emmy Lou is more real than they; and finest of all, perhaps, is the wonderful insight into the growth of the child's mind that gives these stories, though written to stand separately, all the dramatic coherence and development of a great novel.

In his illustrations, Charles L. Hinton has shown the same ability and sympathy with children that Mrs. Martin displays in the narrative.

Racer of Illinois
By Henry Somerville
Author of "Jack Racer"

Plot and action mark this book, as delightful character-drawing did its predecessor. This story transfers the activities of Jack Racer to a larger and more important field than the little prairies town of the earlier work. Here we find Jack, with the courage of ignorance and the buoyance of youth, ranging himself against a big railroad corporation, choosing the State Senate as a suitable arena.

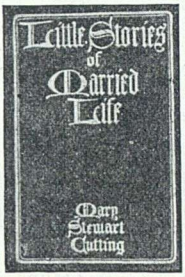
Little Stories of Married Life
By Mary Stewart Cutting



Mrs. Cutting begins where other story-tellers leave off. Marriage is a very general experience, and the married in actual life seem as much alive as other people; but in literature they generally pass out of any existence worth the name when the ceremony is performed. In the very heart of domesticity Mrs. Cutting finds moving crises and climaxes, perils and triumphs

IMPORTANT AUTUMN PUBLICATIONS OF

McCLURE PHILLIPS AND COMPANY

Indian Boyhood

By Charles A. Eastman [Ohiyesa] and with pictures by E. L. Blumenschein.

More than thirty years ago a little Indian boy, Ohiyesa, a Santee Sioux, was roaming the prairies of the Northwest with his tribe. His father having been taken captive years before and his mother having died, he was in charge of an aged grandmother who taught him all kinds of useful Indian wisdom and legendary lore. One day, to the surprise of all, the father returned, no longer as a savage warrior, however, but as a missionary to his own people. Little Ohiyesa was sent to the East to be schooled in the ways of the white men. He is now government physician on the Crow Creek Agency, South Dakota. His book, the record of the memories of his early experiences, is absolutely unique as a picture of Indian life, not from without but intimately from within, and is a narrative full of beauty, poetry and information.

The Letters of Daniel Webster

Edited by C. H. Van Tyne, Ph.D.

This is the definitive edition of the correspondence of the great American orator and statesman. So much of the correspondence is of a highly confidential and private nature that it would have been manifestly indiscreet to make public the bulk of the letters until the field should have been completely cleared of contemporary witnesses. Everything concerning the age in which Webster lived and worked is now legitimate matter for history, and the present volume will be of more assistance in completely reconstructing that age for the student of historical research and for the general reader than any other document in existence.

WILLIAM HAZLITT

The Complete Works of William Hazlitt

With an introduction by W. E. Henley

This is the first complete edition of the works of the greatest literary critic that the English-speaking world has known. That the entire writings of such a master should never have been collected in a uniform edition similar to those of DeQuincey and Lamb, has always been a matter of regret to lovers of English letters. The Dent edition supplies this deficiency in a manner that cannot but delight every admirer of Hazlitt. The set, which is in twelve volumes, includes all of Hazlitt's literary, political, dramatic, and miscellaneous writings. The edition is limited to three hundred and fifty sets. A special circular will be sent on application.

Mutual Aid, a Factor in Evolution

By Prince Kropotkin

It has been too much taken for granted that evolution of the race takes place only by the weakest going to the wall and by the stronger surviving, and that any means of preventing this natural process will lead to the degeneration of the race. Prince Kropotkin shows that among animals, savages, barbarians, and modern races there is another side to the question, suggested by Darwin but not so fully worked out by him. He explains by many examples the large extent to which mutual aid replaces competition.

The Prayers of Dr. Johnson

For the first time the many prayers composed by Dr. Johnson have been taken from their original setting in his journal, and presented not merely on the strength of their autobiographic interest but as a body of divine exhortations unsurpassed in the English language. Notes and introduction have been furnished by Mr. William Aspenwall Bradley. The book has for a frontispiece a reproduction, in photogravure, of a portrait by Sir Joshua Reynolds. Published in three editions. A special circular will be sent on application.

Border Fights and Fighters

By Cyrus Townsend Brady

Daniel Boone, Sam Houston, David Crockett, William Henry Harrison, and Andrew Jackson—these are some of the men of whom Cyrus Townsend Brady writes in his "Border Fights and Fighters." Their exploits form the most romantic chapters in American history; they themselves stand as the hardiest and most picturesque group among the makers of the nation. From Tohopeka in the south to Vincennes and Fort Stephenson in the north; from King's Mountain to the Alamo and San Jacinto their battles in the wilderness and on the plains mark the decisive steps by which the boundaries of the nation were pushed westward

Jeanne d'Arc

With introduction and critical notes by T. Douglas Murray

Translations from the verbatim reports in Latin, of the ecclesiastical proceedings in the trial of Jeanne d'Arc. These documents have recently come to light. It is probably the only instance of a complete biographical record of the greatest historical importance being taken down by evidence on oath. The trial is one of the most enthralling dramas in all history. The depositions cover the whole pathetic story of the childhood of the Maid, her military career as commander-in-chief of the French armies, her capture, imprisonment, and death at the stake, as described by eye-witnesses.

Fictional Rambles in and About Boston

By Frances Weston Carruth

The list of the novelists who have written stories with Boston for a background is a long and imposing one. Hawthorne, Holmes, Howells, James, Cooper—these are some of the names that are included in it. Naturally this body of fiction has given Boston a set of associations second in interest to its historical associations only, if indeed we may not consider, as we may well do, these imaginative plots and characters as part of the real history of the city to which they belong. Miss Carruth has made a thorough study of her subject and the book is fully illustrated.

Letters from Egypt

By Lady Duff Gordon, with an introduction by George Meredith and frontispiece portrait after portrait by G. F. Watts

The reprint of a famous series of letters by one of the most brilliant Englishwomen of her time. They are of permanent literary and historical value, and the fascinating personality of the woman, whose greatness of heart and of mind will make them live, is drawn by Mr. Meredith in a sympathetic manner. Like Diana and Aminta, though in a different sense, she is one of his heroines.

FALL ANNOUNCEMENT OF NEW PUBLICATIONS AND NEW EDITIONS

An edition of Shakespeare that will satisfy the most fastidious bibliophile.

THE EDINBURGH EDITION.

A series of Folios was initiated recently with an edition of Shakespeare, which the publishers hope will prove a type and exemplar of modern bookmaking.

It was their desire to produce a series as beautiful and as dignified as paper and print could make it. Sixteen parts of this first series have now been issued as follows:

THE MERCHANT OF VENICE,
THE TEMPEST,
THE MERRY WIVES OF WINDSOR,
THE COMEDY OF ERRORS,
MEASURE FOR MEASURE,
MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING,
LOVE'S LABOUR LOST,
TWO GENTLEMEN OF VERONA,
A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM,
AS YOU LIKE IT,
THE TAMING OF THE SHREW,
THE WINTER'S TALE,
ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL,
TWELFTH NIGHT,
KING JOHN,
KING RICHARD II.

These beautiful books have been printed by Messrs. Constable & Company, of Edinburgh, who have given them the benefit of their best skill.

The typographical interest notwithstanding, this series is, above all, a Shakespeare to be read. The editor is Mr. W. E. Henley, whose notes are neither explanatory nor critical, and who has kept the text as close to the first Folio as he could.

The parts, though tall and stately, are neither heavy nor cumbersome; the type is black, bold, and eminently easy to the eye; the paper is handmade, sunny-white, durable, yet light.

There will be forty parts, and all will be so paged as to be bound in eight volumes, yet each part is complete in itself, and so cased in temporary binding as to be handled with convenience and to stand uninjured in the library.

There will be ten authentic portraits in the series, several of Shakespeare himself, and others of Jonson, Fletcher, Burbage, Southampton and Pembroke.

The edition will consist of 1000 copies, of which only 360 are for sale in America.

Each volume will be numbered.

The cost of each part is $2.00 net, but the work is sold in complete sets only.

Two parts are issued each month.

The most complete history published of the most beautiful capital in the world.

PARIS, PAST AND PRESENT.

By HENRY HAYNIE.

Chevalier de la Legion d'Honneur, etc.

This history of the capital of Europe, as Paris is often called, is a work wherein every page is full of thought and is admirably written by an American who lived in France for twenty years. It is a work which gives a complete and graphic account of Paris from its earliest moments to the present time.

Readers, when they have finished with this work, will know more of the religious, political, social, moral, economical, intellectual and artistic life of Paris than they ever knew before, or can possibly learn from any other similar publication.

The English-reading public generally will be interested in this full account of the famous place from its baptism until it has come to be the most magnificent capital in existence.

FREDERICK A. STOKES COMPANY'S ANNOUNCEMENTS.

A remarkable biography of France's most famous novelist.

THE LIFE AND WRITINGS OF ALEXANDER DUMAS.

By HARRY A. SPURR.

With the exception of this work no adequate life of Dumas is in existence. No impartial and complete biography exists even in French.

Part I. of the work is devoted to the career of Dumas from his birth to his manhood and fame. Part II. deals with the character of the man. Part III. deals briefly with the plays and gives much attention to the romances—their origin, merit and authenticity, with illustrative anecdotes concerning the more notable books. Part IV. comprises a defense of Dumas against the charges generally brought against him, with an attempt at an appreciation of his genius.

A list of authorities, a full chronology of the events of his life, the publication of his works, etc., and an index round out this notable biography.

THE AMERICAN DIARY OF A JAPANESE GIRL.

By MISS MORNING GLORY.

A modern Japanese girl gives her impressions of America. Miss Morning Glory is quaint, romantic, simple, and clever at once. She writes with a sprightly grace and distinction of style that show her to be an artist, true to the traditions of Japan.

Beautifully illustrated by the well-known Japanese artist, Genjiro Yeto. With one full-page in color, a number of full-page half-tone engravings and Japanese borders in tints. Bound with grass-cloth back and white and gold sides.

THE LAST AMERICAN.

By JOHN A. MITCHELL.

Author of "Amos Judd," "The Pines of Lory," etc.

"A fragment from the Journal of Khan-li, Prince of Dimph-yoo-chur, an Admiral in the Persian Navy."

An amusing and satirical account of the adventures of a party of Persian explorers among the ruins of America in the year 2951 A.D.

Fifteen editions of this popular book have been issued, and in consequence of the increased demand for it, the publishers have decided to make a special HOLIDAY EDITION.

The special features of this Edition de Luxe will be eight full-page illustrations in COLORS by F. W. READ, made under the supervision of Mr. Mitchell. In addition there will be decorations by Alfred D. Blashfield, and all of Mr. Mitchell's own illustrations, with few exceptions, will be shown. The typographical part of the work will be done anew in the best manner, and the printing and binding will be especially attractive.

It will be one of the most beautiful presentation books published during the year.

THE STORY OF DU BARRY.

By JAMES L. FORD.

Author of "Dolly Dillenbeck," "The Literary Shop," etc

A long and interesting account of the story of Mme. Du Barry and of the production of David Belasco's great play, by James L. Ford, who has made an exhaustive study of the period of Louis XV.

A great deal of valuable information is given in Mr. Ford's text, and the illustrations are the finest ever made for any such book. There are nearly sixty half-tone engravings and six photogravures. These are all taken from photographs of Mr. Belasco's company and give a complete series of pictures of the play. Some of these also reproduce the unique stage properties which were used in the play. For example, the gold cup and saucer belonging to Madame Du Barry, used on the stage during the performance, are shown here.

LOVE, LAURELS AND LAUGHTER.

By BEATRICE HANSCOM.

The seventy or more graceful poems gathered together under this decidedly original title have mostly appeared in the "Century," in "Life," in "Puck" and in other American periodicals. As shown by what has been printed in these periodicals, Miss Hanscom has a light touch and a good ear; her metre is smooth and her poems are musical and contain original ideas very neatly expressed.

Examples of classic art at a price within the reach of all.

THE HUNDRED MOST FAMOUS PICTURES IN THE WORLD.

Comprising the most renowned examples of the art of all periods and nations, with brief explanatory and critical notes by Augustus Van Cleef.

This is a most important work, showing the famous paintings of the world reproduced in a suitable manner and published at a price which brings them within the reach of all. It will consist of twenty parts; each part contains five reproductions of paintings that have been accepted by the critics and art-lovers as masterpieces.

The first of these parts was issued early in September and two will follow each month until the series is completed. The average size of the plates will be 6½ x 9¼ inches. The twenty paintings reproduced in the first four parts are as follows:

Part I. Mrs. Siddons, Gainsborough; The Wasps' Nest, Bouguereau; The Virgin of the Chair, Raphael; The Angelus, Millet; The Return from Moscow, Meissonier.

Part II. Children of Charles I. of England, Van Dyke; Paris and Helen, David; Une Matinée, Corot; La Cruche Cassée, Greuze; The Holy Family, Murillo.

Part III. The Horse Fair, Marie Rosalie Bonheur; His Own Portrait, Rembrandt Van Ryn; Portrait of Lavinia, Titian; Descent from the Cross, Peter Paul Rubens; The Gleaner, Jules Breton.

Part IV. The Fighting Téméraire, Joseph M. W. Turner; Beatrice Cenci, Guido Reni; The Last Supper, Leonardo da Vinci; Shoeing the Bay Mare, Sir Edwin Landseer; The Artist and Her Daughter, Wm. Le Brun.

A Woman Ventures.

By DAVID GRAHAM PHILLIPS (John Graham).

This is a romance woven with materials that make up the life of American men and women of to-day in town and country. The heroine is a young American girl, beautiful and full of charm, but contemptuous of conventionalities, though always high minded. The style is simple and direct, and the story is fascinating in the extreme.

Come With Me Into Babylon.

By JOSIAH M. WARD.

Mr. Ward has taken his readers back to the time of Nebuchadnezzar and the last days of Nineveh. He gives us not a glimpse, but a picture of the lives of the Babylonians, whose name has come to be a synonym for luxury and wantonness.

Those were heroic days really, when the greatest nations of that remote antiquity, the Babylonians, Medes, Lydians and Egyptians, met over the carcass of Assyria and engaged in a fierce struggle for the mastery of the world.

There is a romantic love story of uninterrupted interest running through the book.

With eight illustrations. Well printed and bound.

A Daughter of Raasay.

By WILLIAM MacLEOD RAINE.

This is a romance of the mad days when the Stuarts made their last desperate attempt to regain the throne of England. The story rushes along from one episode to another, unraveling a capital plot by daring adventures, sparkling dialogues and situations of surprising dramatic intensity, while Aileen, the heroine, is at once the despair of her lover and the delight of the reader.

Tom Moore.

By THEODORE BURT SAYRE.

This is a romance by the author of "Two Summer Girls and I."

It is founded on the play which was produced with so much success throughout the country, with Andrew Mack in the title role.

Mr. Sayre makes his hero a rollicking, charming Irishman who wins the hearts of all of his readers by his humor and genial qualities.

One special feature of the book is the excellent illustrations. They are half-tone engravings made from photographs of the play. They are graceful and without the usual theatrical effect.

12mo, cloth, ... $1.50

The Garden of Lies.

By JUSTUS MILES FORMAN.

"The Garden of Lies" is a romantic story of love and adventure in modern Paris with a very beautiful young American girl as the heroine. There is a medley of plot and intrigue, jealousy and idyllic love, and some clash of swords. A most striking and original story.

Penruddock of the White Lambs.

By SAMUEL H. CHURCH.

An exciting romance by the author of "John Marmaduke." The hero is Colonel Penruddock, a Royalist, formerly Colonel of the "White Lambs," the Duke of Newcastle's famous regiment which Cromwell cut to pieces at Marston Moor.

When their uniforms were made there was no dye at hand to color them red, and they told the Duke if he would let them wear the white woolen clothes they would dye them with blood—and they did, only forty of them surviving, out of one thousand, when Cromwell had finished his charge down the moor.

The author is one of the greatest living authorities on the history of Cromwell's time.

Three interesting books by the greatest painter of Indian life.

RED FOLK AND WILD FOLK.

Illustrated by Edwin W. Deming. Text by Therese O. Deming.

Edwin W. Deming's pictures show the little Indian people in their happy forest homes, with their animal playfellows.

The stories are taken from the old Indian folk-lore, most of them received directly from the Indians by the author, Therese O. Deming.

They tell of the long ago, when the animal people and the Red people lived happily together and were rewarded for their good deeds or punished for their evil ones.

These tales are the lessons taught to Indian children by the old men and women, and are very real to them.

THE FAIRCHILD FAMILY.

By MRS. SHERWOOD.

Mrs. Sherwood was a popular writer for children in the early part of the 19th century, whose works are regarded in England as almost classics.

The history of the Fairchild family, which is the best of these, was begun in 1818, when George I. was on the throne, and when the Battle of Waterloo was still quite a recent event; but the children then had just the same traits as the children of to-day, and the book will be found charming as a story, and delightful as a picture of the times.

Mary E. Palgrave has edited the work, and has written an interesting introduction to it, giving a sketch of Mrs. Sherwood's life and writings.

With seventy-five illustrations in pen and ink by Florence Rudland, many of them full-page.

FAIRY TALES.

From the Swedish of Baron G. Djurklou.

By H. L. BRAEKSTAD.

With illustrations by Th. Kittelsen and Eric Werenskiold.

These Swedish Folk and Fairy Tales, hitherto quite unknown to lovers of folk-lore outside Sweden, are by Baron Gabriel Djurklou, who has devoted much time and study to the life, the folk-lore and the various dialects of the peasantry of his native country, where his work has been met with great recognition both at the hands of the public and of learned societies.

The many illustrations are by Mr. T. Kittelsen and Mr. E. Werenskiold, two well-known Norwegian artists, who have admirably caught the spirit of each story.

There will also be a frontispiece by Mr. Carl Larsson, the prince of Swedish illustrators.

MARY HAD A LITTLE LAMB.

The True Story of the Real Mary and the Real Lamb.

By FANNIE M. DICKERSON.

The story of this poem is most delightfully told by Mary herself and by Miss Fannie M. Dickerson, an instructor in the South Lancaster Academy, which is located near the scene of the story. The book is very pleasingly illustrated by original pen drawings of the scenes of the story by Herbert A. Owen. It is an entertaining book not only for the children but for those older.

NONSENSE! NONSENSE!

With 28 pages in full color, 36 pages in two colors, cover design and end papers, by Charles Robinson. There are appropriate verses for all the pictures by Walter Jerrold.

Mr. Charles Robinson has excelled himself in this irresistibly droll series of nonsense pictures. No verbal description can do justice to the humorous exaggeration, the quaint distortions, the extraordinary play of imagination that distinguish these drawings.

Mr. Robinson has had a fruitful source of inspiration in the verses of Mr. Walter Jerrold, who shows himself a master of the difficult art of writing nonsense jingles for children.

A GUEST BOOK.

Arranged by FLORENCE L. SAHLER.

This unique little guest book consists of a number of blank pages with a distorted proverb at the head of each, such as, "Spare the Pen and spoil the Pig," etc. Underneath each proverb is a space, and the guest is expected to shut his eyes and draw a complete picture of a pig, and sign his name underneath.

The purpose of the book is explained by the author as follows:

"When visits, dinners, luncheons end
This book is brought to every friend.
One is not asked to write fine prose,
Nor to assume the poet's pose.
One only need his eyes to close
And draw a pig from tail to nose."

MRS. LESLIE CARTER AS MADAME DU BARRY.

A souvenir of the greatest theatrical success ever made in this country. Mr. David Belasco, the author of this play, produced it with a lavishness never equalled in this or any other country. Over $80,000 was spent by him before the first night.

This souvenir is not simply a collection of a few pictures, but contains a careful sketch of Mr. Belasco's work and a brief biography of Madame Du Barry, and it brings out all the interesting facts regarding the valuable properties used in the play. Numerous half-tone illustrations show these properties, and there are three engravings of Mrs. Carter in different scenes of the play and a portrait of Mr. Belasco.

Letters from

A Self-Made Merchant

To His Son

By George Horace Lorimer.

A COLLECTION of twenty letters purporting to be written by John Graham, head of the house of Graham & Company, pork packers in Chicago, and familiarly known "on change" as "Old Gorgon Graham," to his son, Pierrepont, facetiously known to his intimates as "Piggy."

Most of the letters included in this volume were published serially in the Saturday Evening Post of Philadelphia, where they proved to be the most attractive feature yet published in that successful weekly, and the NEW LETTERS WHICH ARE FIRST PUBLISHED IN BOOK FORM fully equal in interest those already known by a large public.

The publication of this volume brings a new author into the field of American humor, whose name seems destined to rank very high. Mr. Lorimer's writing is full of the sound philosophy which is essential to give permanence to any humorous work, and his quaint and homely aphorisms and the keenness of his satire make every paragraph incisive and luminous "Old Gorgon" Graham's advice is so sound, so genuine, and withal so unforgettable that no better book could be placed in the hand of a young man about to begin his struggle for existence; and many an old man who has achieved success in life will find a counterpart to his own experiences among the amusing reminiscences which are liberally intermixed with the sage counsel of the letters.

12mo, Cloth, Decorative, with 18 full-page Illustrations, $1.50.

NEW "UP IN MAINE" POEMS.

PINE TREE BALLADS

By HOLMAN F. DAY.

The Chicago Record-Herald says:
"It is impossible to think of any person or class of people in America that these epical lyrics, these laughter-fetching, tear-provoking ballads will fail to please."

12mo, cloth decorative, gilt top, Illustrated . . $1.00 net.

A NEW BEACON BIOGRAPHY.

JOHN JAMES AUDUBON

By JOHN BURROUGHS.

Mr. Burroughs' latest volume is a notable addition to a notable series and fully equal to his best work. The subject and the author give the book double charm.

With photogravure portrait and engraved title page.

LIST OF HARPER & BROTHERS' Fall Publications

Fiction

The Maid-at-Arms. By Robert W. Chambers.

Mr. Chambers has long since won a most enviable position among contemporary novelists. The great popular success of "Cardigan" makes this present novel of unusual interest to all readers of fiction. It is a stirring novel of American life in days during the Revolution. It deals with the conspiracy of the great New York land-owners and the subjugation of New York Province to the British. It is a story with a fascinating love interest, and is alive with exciting incident and adventure. Some of the characters of "Cardigan" reappear in this new novel. Illustrated by Christy. $1.50.

The Ship of Dreams. By Louise Forsslund, author of "The Story of Sarah," etc.

Readers of the author's first novel, "The Story of Sarah," will recall that the Dutch settlers around New York played an important part. In this new novel the chief characters are the aristocrats—the descendants of the early settlers on Long Island. The consequences of a curse upon one of these families is the chief motive of the story. It is a novel that will prove one of the most popular of the year. $1.50.

In the Morning Glow. By Roy Rolfe Gilson.

These are stories of home life—the relations of the children with the "family"—told with an appreciative humor, pathos and tenderness that will make every reader recognize in them a part of his own experience. Some of the titles are: Grandmother, Grandfather, Our House, Mother, Little Sister, Captain Jinks' Love Story, etc. Beautifully illustrated by Alice Barber Stephens. $1.25.

Winslow Plain. By Sarah P. McLean Greene, author of "Flood Tide," "Vesty of the Basin," etc.

The scene is laid in a quaint little New England village fifty years ago. It is a story of the life of that time in New England, with a fascinating love interest told from start to finish with the bright, witty optimism and true comedy that all enjoyed in the author's "Flood-Tide." The work of the author has already met with wide appreciation both here and abroad. This new novel will be received with special interest. $1.50.

The Intrusions of Peggy. By Anthony Hope

A new novel that combines the brightness of the author's "Dolly Dialogues" with the interest of the "Prisoner of Zenda." It is a story of life to-day in London, with the adventures and love affairs of a most charming, ingenuous and interesting young woman. This novel will be classed by readers among Anthony Hope's best work. Illustrated. $1.50.

An International Episode. By Henry James.

A new edition of what many readers consider the best of Henry James' fiction, attractively bound, uniform with the author's "Daisy Miller." Illustrated by McVickar. $1.25.

The Vultures. By Henry Seton Merriman, author of "The Sowers."

The announcement of a new novel by Henry Seton Merriman will be welcome to every reader of fiction. This is an exciting novel of love, adventure, and international intrigue in Russia, etc. The attachés of the diplomatic foreign offices play an important part. It is a story of absorbing interest from start to finish. Illustrated. $1.50.

The Red House. By E. Nesbit.

This is a delightful story of the honeymoon and the funny experiences of a young married couple who from "love in a cottage" come into an extensive country estate. Their difficulties and adventures in settling their new home, the love affair after marriage of the two young people are told with rare charm and humor. So far it is the author's most attractive work of fiction. Illustrated by Keller. $1.50.

Istar of Babylon. By Margaret Horton Potter, author of "The House of de Mailly," etc.

This is a most interesting novel of the time just before the fall of Babylon, up to and including the great feast of Belshazzar. Istar is the Babylonian Aphrodite. Around her as the central figure the author has written a story of wonderful power. It is original. It will be widely read and talked of. Illustrated. $1.50.

The Conquest of Rome. By Matilde Serao, author of "The Land of Cockayne."

The author is without doubt the greatest modern Italian novelist. The main theme of this new novel is the conquest made by Rome over a brilliant young statesman who goes there from the provinces. It is a novel of intense and absorbing interest. $1.50.

Sister Joan of the Cross. By Matilde Serao.

This is another powerful novel by Serao, whom Edmund Gosse, the famous English critic, describes as "the most prominent imaginative writer of the latest generation in Italy." Serao was born in Patras, Greece, of an Italian father and a Greek mother of noble blood. Her early years were spent in journalistic work; and in order to study life in places not frequented by women, she occasionally wore man's attire. This zeal resulted in a wonderful knowedge of life, which is evident in her work. $1.50.

Out of the West. By Elizabeth Higgins.

This is the story of the career of a young man who goes from the East to the West—his rise to power, temptation, struggle, success. Every phase of the life of the young American, as the author describes it, is true. It is, besides, a story of life—the home life, society, the actual every-day experiences of the people of a typical little Western town. A remarkably strong and interesting work of fiction. $1.50.

The Wooing of Wistaria. By Onoto Watanna,

author of "A Japanese Nightingale," etc,

This is a new novel by the well-known Japanese author, Onoto Watanna. The scene is in Japan, and the characters are Japanese. It is a love story, with all the poetic charm and feeling that made "A Japanese Nightingale" one of the most delightful and popular novels of recent fiction. Frontispiece portrait of author in tint. $1.50.

History

The Reign of Queen Anne. By Justin McCarthy. (Uniform with McCarthy's "Reminiscences.")

This history of the life and times of Queen Anne is a very fitting introductory volume to the series of Mr. McCarthy's popular histories of England, her men, manners, and events. The age of Queen Anne is one of the most brilliant periods of English history—the time of Addison, Swift, Steele, Bolingbroke, and the great Marlborough. Anne was the second daughter of James II. She came to the throne in 1702, on the death of William III., and died in 1714. The McCarthy histories begin, in point of time, with this Life of Anne; then follow "A History of the Four Georges and of William IV.," and "A History of Our Own Times," which ends with Queen Victoria's Golden Jubilee. Two volumes. Crown 8vo, uncut edges, gilt top, cloth. In a box. $4.00 net.

A History of the American People. By Woodrow Wilson, Ph.D., Litt.D., LL.D., President of Princeton University,

President Woodrow Wilson has devoted the best years of his life to the preparation of his great work, "A History of the American People," from the earliest times to the accession of President Theodore Roosevelt. The work, which is just completed, is monumental in character and scope, represents the genius of the greatest historical thinker of modern times, and is written in that delightfully flowing style which makes it read like a romance. It is printed from new type especially cast in 1902. In the matter of illustration, every field of human activity has been searched, and hundreds upon hundreds of new portraits, prints, maps, plans, and pictures make the pictorial features alone tell their wonderful story of the finding of the continent and the birth and growth of what is the United States of America. There is a photogravure frontispiece to each volume, and portraits in India tint and black. It is a curious fact that there is not a single complete history of the United States in existence to-day. Dr. Woodrow Wilson's is the first. In five volumes. 8vo, Library Binding, Uncut Edges, Gilt Tops. In a box. Per set, $17.50 net; ¾ Calf or ¾ Levant, in a box, per set, $30 net.

Biography

A Doffed Coronet. By the author of "Martyrdom of an Empress."

This is the story of the actual experiences of the titled author of "The Martyrdom of an Empress" and the "Tribulations of a Princess." It tells of the intrigues and adventures of the secret diplomatic agents at the European courts, where the princess was brought up, and shows from actual observation the ins and outs of life among the titled nobility. Her experiences in America, where she lived for a time incognito, make most interesting reading. Illustrated Ornamented Cloth. $2.25 net.

Poetry

Songs of Two Centuries. By Will Carleton.

A new book of poems by one of the most popular poets of our times. It was written, as its name indicates in the last years of the nineteenth and the first years of the twentieth century. The book is divided into different sections, and shows in the fullest degree the versatility of its author's style. There are "Songs of the Nation," "Songs of the Rivers," "Songs of the Mountains," "Songs of Pleasure and Pain," "Songs of Months and Days," etc., etc., ranging from grave to gay, and from the most dignified English to the quaintest dialect. The work is published in the large, square 8vo edition which has been so popular, so much in demand for holiday and other presents, and is profusely illustrated. Illustrated. Square Ornamented Cloth. $1.50 net.

Poems and Verses. By E. S. Martin, author of "Lucid Intervals," etc.

This is an attractive volume of verse written in the genial, humorous vein that all readers look for and enjoy in Mr. Martin's work. There are about thirty poems in the volume—all of them of rare charm and beauty. Frontispiece, title-page in two colors. $1.25 net.

Belles-Lettres

Literature and Life. By W. D. Howells.

This volume is another of Mr. Howells' delightful books of reminiscence and criticism of literary things, life and people. It is written in the same style and is bound uniformly with the author's "Literary Friends and Acquaintance" and "Heroines of Fiction." Thirty-two full-page illustrations. $2.25 net.

The Christmas Kalends of Provence. By Thomas A. Janvier, author of "The Passing of Thomas," "In Great Waters," etc.

Nowhere is Christmas celebrated with more genuine jollity, and at the same time true reverence, than in the French province of Provence. Mr. Janvier knows the country in all its phases—the people, their quaint customs, their naïve manners, their ceremonies, hospitality. A chapter in this genuine and charming volume is the story of "A Feast-day on the Rhône," and another tells of the remarkable performances of the finest dramatic company of Europe, the Comédie Française, on the noble stage of the restored Roman theatre at Orange, in southeastern France, where classic dramas were given. The volume is artistic, delightful in tone, and written with Mr. Janvier's accustomed grace of style. Illustrated. Post 8vo, Ornamented Cloth. $1.25 net.

Travel

Picturesque Sicily. By William Agnew Paton.

This is one of the most thoroughly attractive books of travel in print. The new and revised edition is now published in answer to a continuous demand. The island of Sicily is one of the gems of the Eastern Mediterranean, rich in magnificent remains of early Grecian architecture, and is visited and admired by thousands annually. Mr. Paton's book fulfils more than any other the requirements of a volume on Sicily. The author has so successfully described the island, its floral, architectural, and racial features, that it has also been translated into Italian and published in Italy. New Revised Edition. Beautifully Illustrated from Photographs. Crown 8vo, Ornamented Cloth, $2.50.

Special Books for Women

Harper's Cook-Book Encyclopædia.

This is the cook-book of the 20th century. There is no other cook-book which is made like a dictionary, so that you can turn instantly to what you want without going through a maze of indexes and tables of contents. It contains a comprehensive number of approved recipes by which the most famous cooking authorities of the world are represented. The book is indispensable to every household, experienced or otherwise. Some of the contributors are: Brillat-Savarin, Marion Harland, Juliet Corson, Christine Terhune Herrick, Mary Stuart Smith, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Blay, Mrs. Margaret Hamilton Welch, Ysaguirre, La Marca Francatelli, Margaret Sangster, Eliza R. Parker, and numerous others. Bound in Washable Leather Cloth. Contributions by every Cooking Expert. Edited by the Editor of Harper's Bazar. Illustrated. $1.50 net.

How to Keep Household Accounts. By Charles Waldo Haskins, C.P.A., L.H.M., Dean and Professor of Auditing and of the History of Accountancy in the School of Commerce, Accounts and Finance of New York University.

This little book will do more for womankind than any other book published in years. It will save housekeepers time, money, and worry, by showing them the practical, easy way of keeping simple accounts. It requires no previous knowledge of bookkeeping or anything of the kind. Its style is conversational, and the classification of receipts and expenses is simple and clear. The method may be put in practice immediately, beginning at any period of the year, by any one. Dean Haskins is well known as the head of the firm of Haskins & Sells, certified public accountants, of New York, London, Chicago, St. Louis, and Cleveland. He is the founder and head of the only university college of accounts in the world; was the first president of the board of examiners appointed by the Regents under the accountants act of the New York Legislature; is president of the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants, and is active as a lecturer and writer on the science of accounts. No father, husband, or brother could give a present that would cause more satisfaction to the whole household than this valuable little book. 16mo, cloth, $1.00 net.

Gift Books

Through the Looking-Glass. By Lewis Carroll.

The Peter Newell edition of "Alice's Adventures in Wonderland" was one of the most successful books published last year. It therefore seemed advisable to bring out "Through the Looking-Glass" in a similar handsome edition. The great favor with which Mr. Newell's clever pictures have been received has thoroughly justified the selection of him as the one artist best fitted to make the illustrations for these unique and immortal stories of a little girl's adventures in a land of wonders. This edition is not intended for young people more than for their elders. It is a standard book for every reader, and no library can be deemed complete without it. Forty Full-page Illustrations by Peter Newell. (Uniform with "Alice's Adventures in Wonderland.") Frontispiece Portrait of Peter Newell. Decorative Borders in Color by Robert Murray Wright. 8vo, Ornamented Vellum, Deckel Edges and Gilt Top. In a box. $3.00 net.

The Deserted Village. By Oliver Goldsmith.

This is the finest edition extant of Goldsmith's immortal poem. Mr. Abbey, famous throughout the world as an artist of consummate skill, has been at work for many years on the illustrations, which appeared first in Harper's Magazine. The edition has introductions by Goldsmith and by Austin Dobson, and there are copious annotations by Cunningham. Exquisitely Illustrated by Edwin A. Abbey, R.A. Frontispiece Portrait of E. A. Abbey. Royal 8vo, Red Silk Cloth, Full Gilt, $3.00.

An Old Country House. By Richard Le Gallienne.

The story of the plans and ambitions of two young people who are happily married and who finally acquire and fit up a little country house according to their own ideas. It is not only a most delightfully written story of country life, but one of the most charming love stories of recent fiction. Illustrated by Elizabeth Shippen Green. Printed in two colors. Leather back, decorated sides and gilt top (in a box). $2.40 net.

The First Christmas. By Gen. Lew Wallace, author of "Ben Hur."

The great popularity of this beautiful story has necessitated the publication of this handsome new edition. It is designed especially for a Christmas gift. It is printed in two colors, illustrated from reproductions of paintings by Raphael, Murillo, etc. and with artistic marginal drawings by William Martin Johnson. Gilt top, uncut edges. $1.25.

Juveniles

Outdoorland. By Robert W. Chambers, author of "Cardigan," "The Conspirators," "Lorraine," etc.

This is Mr. Chambers' first book for children. It contains stories of outdoor nature life; stories told to two charming little children by the butterfly, the robin, the trout, and others of their outdoor friends. It is all simply and interestingly told, and the volume is beautifully illustrated with paintings in color by Reginald Birch, the illustrator of "Little Lord Fauntleroy," etc. Cover, type, and paintings in tint and color. $1.50 net.

The Flight of Pony Baker. By W. D. Howells.

This is a most delightful story of the adventures, experiences and feelings of a "real" boy. It is a book for grown people as well as for boys, for it portrays in a vein of rare insight and humor the actual life of boy-town as all know it. It is an inimitable story told in a way to interest every one who is interested in boys. Illustrated. $1.25 net.

The Lovable Tales of Janey and Josey and Joe. By Gertrude Smith, author of "The Roggie and Reggie Stories."

These are the nicest little stories imaginable about Janey, a sweet, unselfish child, her sister Josey, and her brother Joe. The subjects are those familiar to all households—tea-parties, making cookies, playing circus on the lawn, flowers, visits—but they are dealt with in a charming manner peculiar to Miss Smith's original method. There are fifteen chapters, each one beautifully illustrated. Illustrated with 16 Full-page Colored Pictures by E. Mars and M. H. Squire, with striking Pictorial Cover in six colors and gold. Square 8vo, Cloth, $1.30 net.

DOUBLEDAY, PAGE & CO.'S FALL BOOKS

New Fiction

Just So Stories. By Rudyard Kipling

For little children. Illustrated by the author.

These tales are as original and strike as new a vein for the younger generation as the "Jungle Books." Like those famous collections, too, they appeal almost as strongly to the grown-ups. This is the first book which Mr. Kipling has ever illustrated, and the pictures are of the utmost interest. Altogether it is a volume which should occupy a leading place among the book lists for the fall.

Profusely illustrated, net $1.20

Danny. A Novel, by Alfred Ollivant

Mr. Ollivant's "Bob, Son of Battle" at once became a classic. This new story is in a very different vein, though the dog is still the central character; the main figures are the grim old Laird, the last of the "stark Heriots," his fascinating child-wife, and Danny, "gray knight" and idol of the mistress as well as of the retainers. It is an exceedingly interesting tale.

16 Illustrations, $1.50

The Lane That Had No Turning. By Gilbert Parker

With about 60 Illustrations by FRANK E. SCHOONOVER.

This story of Pontiac has been pronounced one of the strongest things Mr. Parker has ever written—as it is one of the very latest. In this sumptuous form it should have the widest popularity, for it is really a full-fledged novel in spirit if not in size. It is the most elaborately illustrated novel of recent years, with ten full-page pictures printed in tint, head and tail pieces, decorative cover and lining pages.

$1.50

The Wooing of Judith. By Sara Beaumont Kennedy

A charming love story of old Virginia, by the author of that very successful romance "Joscelyn Cheshire."

$1.50

Tangled Up In Beulah Land. By "J. P. M."

"Polly," the heroine of this delightful tale, is an adorable damsel and is in herself sufficient "reason for existence" for any book; but the story has additional interest for the thousand of readers of "A Journey to Nature" since it continues the adventures of the narrator of that tale and "Charlie" now a young man with entanglements—which drive both out to the Doctor's Pennsylvania Arcadia.

Decorated, net $1.50

A Journey to Nature. By "J. P. M."

Poetry, Old and New

The Elizabethan Shakspere. Ed. by Mark H. Liddell

Professor Liddell is preparing the first critical text of Shakspere that has been made in 50 years, the first, therefore, to have the benefit of modern scholarship in English. For the first time one can here really understand what Shakspere meant in many places. The typography by De Vinne is unique, the notes forming a frame to the text page; and a famous printer declared he would be willing to rest his whole reputation on such a work.

"Macbeth" Ready. Luxurious Limited Edition. Particulars on request.

Variorum Edition of Works of Edward FitzGerald

These seven volumes comprise the definitive edition of the complete prose and poetical works of the translator of Omar Khayyam. Much of his work has hitherto been unknown save to ardent and well-informed collectors; and from a unique collection, made after many years of special search, Mr. George Bentham has arranged these volumes, together with a bibliography and notes. Mr. Edmund Gosse has furnished an introduction.

Some copies still left of each of the 3 strictly Limited Editions. Prices already raised once and will be advanced again. Particulars on application.

Rhymes and Roundelays. From "Life"

A collection of the most typical bits of verse which have appeared in Life. It is hardly necessary to say that these unostentatious little lyrics have a distinctly modern flavor; and they range from the gracefully serious to the irresistibly comic. They are all dainty, and many have real poetic excellence. The book is profusely illustrated from drawings.

Patience, or Bunthorne's Bride. By W. S. Gilbert

The text of "Patience," which is as keen a satire as has been published for many generations, has never been available in attractive and convenient form. By arrangement with the author, this revised edition will be issued as a book of literary value, aside from its musical interest, the text being printed by itself. Mr. Gilbert has written a characteristic introduction, telling how "Patience" originated and was worked out.

Biography, Travel, Science, Etc.

Shakspere and His Fore-Runners.

By Sidney Lanier

The author gives first a most suggestive survey of the beginnings of English poetry and what it had become when the marvelous Elizabethan Age carried it to undreamed-of heights; and then, after an elaborate treatment of the sonnet writers from Surrey to Shakspere, he takes up in detail the study of the man, William Shakspere, the social life which surrounded him, and his mental and spiritual evolution as shown by the growth of his art. Much of the best prose work Mr. Lanier left is contained in these two volumes.

Memoirs of A Contemporary.

Translated by L. Strachey

The author went to the wars in men's clothes to follow Marshal Ney, and her pages are full of the most intimate accounts of this dashing general, of Napoleon, and all the figures of the First Empire. It makes exceedingly attractive reading for it is all told with Gallic deftness and vivacity.

Nature, Art and Practical Subjects

American Animals. By Witmer Stone and W. E. Cram

There has not been in our generation any adequate volume on the mammals of North America, making use of the mass of knowledge which modern science has accumulated. Mr. Stone's reputation as a scientific zoölogist and Mr. Cram's as a writer of intimate studies of animal life, assure an unusual combination of excellences; and the book is a most important addition to the "New Nature Library." The illustrations comprise a hundred remarkable photographs from life (and generally in their native haunts) of our wild animals—the most real and convincing series in any book about animals.

Six color plates and 100 black and white pictures, net $3.00

How to Attract the Birds. By Neltje Blanchan

A new book on birds by the author of "Bird Neighbors," "Birds that Hunt and Are Hunted," and "Nature's Garden," is a distinct addition to Nature literature. With a great number of extraordinary photographs, it forms a unique work on the almost untouched subject of "making friends" with "bird neighbors."

About 75 pictures, net $1.35

Nature and the Camera. By A. Radclyffe Dugmore

A detailed account of how to photograph birds, flowers, fish, animals. From the choice of a camera to questions of lighting and to handling shy wild creatures, every step is clearly explained.

Recollections of a Long Life

An Autobiography. By Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, D.D., LL.D. Crown 8vo, 5 illustrations, net, $1.50. Edition de Luxe, large paper, net, $3.00.

Dr. Cuyler's many years as pastor and author, his association with great men in all lines and his vast fund of anecdotes, make this life story one of unusual interest and value.

Over the Black Coffee

Compiled by Arthur Gray. 16mo, illustrated, net, 75 cents. Gift edition, ooze leather, in a coffee sack, net, $1.50.

This work includes the history of coffee, its method of growth, its rise in popularity in this country and abroad, verses and essays about coffee and many coffee anecdotes. It contains, also, some recipes for making coffee by many leading chefs in the country.

Reciprocity

By Profs. J. Laurence Laughlin of Chicago University, and H. Parker Willis of Washington and Lee University. 12mo, cloth, net.

A practical exposition of the subject of Reciprocity by two of the most eminent professors of political economy in the country.

THE ROLFE SHAKESPEARE

In limp leather

Single volumes, net, 90 cents

40 volumes, boxed, net, $36.00

This standard edition of Shakespeare in small 12mos will be issued in the fall in an attractive library edition bound in limp leather with gilt top and handsomely designed title pages in two colors.

Life of Ulrich Zwingli

The Swiss Patriot and Reformer. By Samuel Simpson, Ph.D. 12mo, cloth, illustrated, net, $1.25.

The author has devoted several years of careful study to Zwingli's life, with the result that he has now issued a popular and authoritative life of the Swiss reformer containing much new material. The book is interestingly written and illustrated with attractive half-tones.

Valid Objections to So-Called Christian Science

By Rev. Andrew F. Underhill. 12mo, cloth, net, 50 cents; paper, net, 25 cents.

The author seeks to refute the principles upon which "Christian Science" is based by straightforward argument. He regards the growth of this sect as a menace to Christianity, in fact to civilization in general, and in a vigorous work he has sought to awake people's minds to the fallacies of so-called "Christian Science."

Help and Good Cheer

A Gift Book. By Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, D.D. Small 12mo, handsomely bound, gilt top, net, $1.00.

The spirit and tone of these papers, in spite of Dr. Cuyler's years, are as fresh and vigorous as in his earlier books which have sold so widely and for so many years.

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & COMPANY'S
NEW FICTION

OUR LADY OF THE BEECHES

By the Baroness von Hutten, author of "Miss Carmichael's Conscience," "Marr'd in Making," etc. 12mo. $1.25.

This is the story of a romantic attachment growing out of a group of letters. The situation is handled with such skill, humor, and delicacy, and in so charming a manner as to make the tale exceptionally attractive.

THE RIGHT PRINCESS

By Clara Louise Burnham, author of "Miss Pritchard's Wedding Trip," "A West Point Wooing," etc. 12mo. $1.50.

An account of an English family who have come to America in search of health for the heir of the house. A young New England girl proves "the right princess" and restores the sought for health through the medium of Christian Science. The story is one of much interest and charm.

THE DIARY OF A SAINT

By Arlo Bates, author of "Love in a Cloud," "The Puritans," etc. Crown 8vo. $1.50.

The story of this novel is told by the heroine, Ruth Privet, in her diary for an eventful year. The central thought is that saintship is a matter rather of conduct than theory. The development of events and character is unusually clear.

AVERY

By Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, author of "A Singular Life," "Gates Ajar," etc. Illustrated by Albert E. Sterner. 12mo. $1.00.

Miss Phelps' power of narration is here present in full measure. It is the story of man and wife, of a beautiful love, of a passing act of neglect and its tremendous consequences. The unexpected outcome of it all is stimulating and satisfying.

A DOWNRENTER'S SON

By Ruth Hall, author of "The Golden Arrow," "The Black Gown," etc. Crown 8vo. $1.50.

Like Miss Hall's earlier books, this novel contains abundant adventure, incident, and color. It deals with the strange attempt to abolish rents in New York about sixty years ago. The story is of equal interest both to older and younger readers.

A SEA TURN AND OTHER MATTERS

By Thomas Bailey Aldrich, author of "Marjorie Daw," "The Story of a Bad Boy," etc. 12mo. $1.25.

A new collection of short stories in which the author's fancy sweeps over many lands with the scenes as far apart as Budapest and Virginia. Each story shows Mr. Aldrich's characteristic cheerful mood.

THE STRONGEST MASTER

By Helen Choate Prince, author of "The Story of Christine Rochefort," "A Transatlantic Chatelaine," etc. 12mo. $1.50.

This is the most striking piece of work we have had from Mrs. Prince's hand. The hero, a young Harvard man of good family, begins his life under a cloud, having been expelled from college. His strongest desire is to reform his own character and the working out of his theories forms much of the interest of the story.

THE HERITAGE

By Burton Egbert Stevenson, author of "A Soldier of Virginia." Crown 8vo. $1.50.

The scene of this novel is laid in Ohio toward the end of the Revolution and it is a thoroughly good tale of adventure and love. The hero takes part in St. Clair's ill-starred expedition against the Indians, is taken prisoner and held captive for three years but escapes and takes part in the victorious attack at Fallen Timbers.

THE HEART OF THE DOCTOR

By Mabel G. Foster. With a frontispiece. 12mo. $1.50.

A love story that has its setting in the old North End of Boston, now taken possession of by the Italians, with a young doctor as hero, and as heroine the daughter of an old Boston family. It is one of the best stories of modern Boston and a delightful romance.

UNCLE CHARLEY

By Zephine Humphrey. 12mo. $1.25.

This is a charming story of a man of genius, whimsical but lovable, and his niece, to whom he is a hero and the chief figure in her world. The tale is told with delicacy and discrimination.

BOSTON AND NEW YORK

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & COMPANY'S
NEW BOOKS for the HOLIDAYS

Japanese Girls and Women

By ALICE M. BACON, author of "A Japanese Interior," etc. With colored illustrations and sketches by a Japanese artist. 12mo, $4.00.

Miss Bacon has thoroughly revised her charming account of the girls and women of Japan and has made many additions. The illustrations lend to the book a strikingly oriental air. There are twelve full-page plates in color and forty-two outline drawings, chiefly the work of Keishu Takenouchi, one of the foremost illustrators of Japan and a resident of Tokyo. They exhibit an exquisiteness of color and delicacy of drawing characteristic of the best Japanese art. An original Japanese cover design in gold adds unity to the decoration of the volume.

Penelope's Irish Experiences

By KATE DOUGLAS WIGGIN, author of "The Diary of a Goose Girl," "The Birds' Christmas Carol," etc. Holiday Edition. Illustrated by Charles E. Brock. 12mo, $2.00.

This is uniform with the Holiday Edition of "Penelope's Experiences in England and Scotland."

Walden

By HENRY D. THOREAU. New one-volume Holiday Edition. Illustrated. 12mo, $3.00.

This famous book is now presented in a single volume which contains thirty photogravures illustrating the favorite haunts of the author, his walks, the Pond, the wood paths, etc., and also an introduction by Bradford Torrey.

Grimm Tales Made Gay

By GUY WETMORE CARRYL. Illustrated by Albert Levering. Square 12mo, $1.50 net. (Postage extra.)

Mr. Carryl's art of writing droll and merry verses has already given him a reputation in his earlier books—"Fables for the Frivolous," and "Mother Goose for Grown-ups." The present volume, as its title indicates, is based upon Grimm's fairy tales. The elaborate form of illustration is a noteworthy feature of the book. It consists of grotesque marginal sketches and a full-page illustration for each verse.

BIOGRAPHY

BOSTON AND NEW YORK

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & COMPANY'S
NEW JUVENILE BOOKS

UNDER COLONIAL COLORS

By EVERETT T. TOMLINSON, author of "In the Hands of the Redcoats," "A Jersey Boy in the Revolution," etc. Illustrated by Clyde O. Deland. Crown 8vo. $1.20 net. (Postage extra.)

Mr. Tomlinson has chosen for the foundation of this story the heroic enterprise of Arnold's expedition to Quebec. It is told with much spirit and with such mastery of historic detail that it carries the reader along completely convinced.

LOIS MALLET'S DANGEROUS GIFT

By MARY CATHERINE LEE, author of "A Quaker Girl of Nantucket," "A Soulless Singer," etc. With a frontispiece by W. L. Taylor. 12mo. 85 cents net. (Postage 7 cents.)

The tale of a Quaker girl of great beauty, of the maiden's discovery of this and of its temptation. The book is entirely wholesome and charming.

THREE LITTLE MARYS

By NORA ARCHIBALD SMITH, author of "Under the Cactus Flag," "The Children of the Future," etc. Illustrated by A. F. Schmitt. Sq. 12mo. 85 cents net. (Postage extra.)

Three stories of three little girls who all had names which in different tongues stand for Mary. One lived in Scotland, another in England and the third in Ireland. There is a touch of excitement as well as sympathy and humor in these stories which make an attractive book for girls.

A POCKETFUL OF POSIES

By ABBIE FARWELL BROWN, author of "In the Days of Giants," "The Lonesomest Doll," etc. Illustrated by Fanny Y. Cory. 12mo. $1.00 net. (Postage extra.)

Miss Brown has a rare faculty for entering into the mind of a child in a joyous spirit. These verses are full of sprightliness, humor, and grace and present in variety of simple verse-forms a little panorama of child life. The book is attractively illustrated and printed with marginal comments in red.

THE CHAMPION

By CHARLES EGBERT CRADDOCK, author of "The Prophet of the Great Smoky Mountain," etc. With a frontispiece by Alice Barber Stephens. 12mo. $1.20 net. (Postage 10 cents.)

This book for boys has swift play of action and abundance of interest. The hero is a printer's "devil" in the office of a Southern newspaper. He goes through experiences exciting enough to delight the heart of any boy.

MISS MUFFET'S CHRISTMAS PARTY

By SAMUEL M. CROTHERS. With delightful illustrations by Olive M. Long. sq. 12mo.

A gathering of all the favorite heroes and heroines of juvenile literature into a story of irresistible attractions. It shows a quick sympathy with children's minds, and a rare capacity for sharing their fancies. Miss Muffet's party was one after a little girl's own heart.

THE FLAG ON THE HILLTOP

By MARY TRACY EARLE, author of "Through Old-Rose Glasses," etc. Illustrated by W. S. Lukens. 12mo. 90 cents net. (Postage 7 cents.)

The story of a Southern boy who is placed under the care of a Northern uncle during the Civil War. This uncle lives in a Copperhead community in southern Illinois, a region dominated by Confederate sympathizers. The boy's loyalty to his uncle and his loyalty to the South bring about exciting events.

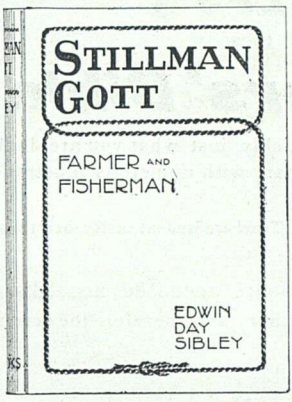
New France and New England

Completing Dr. Fiske's Series of Histories of this Country from the Discovery of America to the Adoption of the Constitution.

This book shares with all of Fiske's work the greatness of his mind and his rare grace of style. It presents the causes and events which marked the victory on this continent of the English civilization over the French.

The Volume is Uniform in Style with Dr. Fiske's Other Historical Works. With Maps. Crown 8vo. $1.65 net Postage 16 cents.

HOUGHTON, MIFFLIN & CO., BOSTON AND NEW YORK



HERE is a book, by a new author and published by a new house, that has achieved instantaneous success. It has been cordially received by critics and reading public alike.

The Louisville Courier-Journal, in a review of the book, said :

"Stillman Gott is a 'rural philosopher,' just as his prototypes were, full of dry, droll sayings, witty stories, and quaint expressions. Generous to a fault, lovable and kind beyond words, he is one of those characters we cannot have too much of either in fiction or in real life. It is a pleasure to know Stillman Gott, and the reader will welcome him into American fiction to take his place alongside of David Harum and Eben Holden."

Besides being a good story, the book is well and handsomely bound. The print is clear and the paper is especially fine. Both from the literary and the mechanical standpoint the book is calculated to "wear well."

THE SAALFIELD PUBLISHING COMPANY'S

NEW BOOKS

IN THE DAYS OF ST. CLAIR. By Dr. James Ball Naylor, author of "Ralph Marlowe," and "The Sign of the Prophet." A romance of the pioneer days of Ohio in which Indians play an important part. A thrilling tale of the hardships endured by the little colony at Marietta, the constant worry and vigilance against Indian attacks, the massacre at Big Bottom settlement, where the heroine, a beautiful French girl, is taken captive and carried to the Indian village, and rescued after many trials by her hero-lover, Paul Graydon, and two faithful friends.
Handsomely bound in cloth, gold stamped, illustrated, $1.50.

POCO A POCO. A novel by William Franklin Johnson. An original American novel, full of action, with a strong love story. A scheme is proposed through a Washington paper for the establishment of a National University of Art and Music. A young westerner and his aged friend become enthused with the plan, and both go to the Capitol City to try to form a company to take up the work. The trials they encounter and their manner of overcoming same makes interesting reading for all classes.
Cloth, 12mo, 307 pages, gold lettered, $1.50.

TOLD BY THE DEATH'S HEAD. By Maurus Jokai, translated by S. E. Boggs. Illustrated by Charles Hope Provost. "It is one of those stories that when the end is reached, the reader draws a sigh of regret over the brevity of the narrative."—Washington Post.
"The author's stupendous facility of composition, his effervescing humor and his inexhaustible repertoire of unexpected endings, afford exercise for the most exacting intellects, and enable grown people to revel like boys in their fantastic extravagances."—Brooklyn Daily Eagle.
Cloth, 12mo, gold lettered, $1.50.

THE INVISIBLES. By E. Earl Christopher. Illustrated by W. S. Lukens. A novel which has for its hero a young Englishman whose mother was once a slave in the Siberian Mines. On account of cruelties and insults heaped upon her, he joins a secret order called The Invisibles, which has for its object the destruction of the Russian Empire, and liberation of the convicts of the mines. This novel has an unusually deep plot, strong characters and thrilling scenes, the rendezvous of the band being an underground cave of Tennessee.
Unique cover design, cloth bound, 12mo, $1.50.

SEEDS OF APRIL'S SOWING. By Ada Louise Sutton. A volume of verse. Lovers of poetic art will be delighted with this dainty volume and its contents. Its charm lies in its naturalness and simplicity, and that quality of verse which, full of refinement and culture, is marked by the sweetness and music that wins all hearts.
Beautifully bound in buckram, gold lettered, cover design in gold, gilt top, uncut edges, $1.25.
An exceedingly dainty gift book.

THE SAALFIELD PUBLISHING COMPANY'S

NEW JUVENILES

THE MOTHER GOOSE PAINT BOOK. By J. M. Barnett. The most unique, entertaining and instructive Children's Book on the market. Attached to the margin of the cover of the "Mother Goose Paint Book" is a dainty box of bright colored paints and fine brush, all ready for the little one to go to work painting the outline pictures contained in this book, which have been drawn with a special view to childish fancies and skill in coloring same. Opposite each picture is given the appropriate Mother Goose rhyme. Substantially bound in boards, cloth back, over one hundred pages, exceedingly bright cover design, $1.25.

ANIMAL LIFE IN RHYMES AND JINGLES. By Elizabeth May. Pictures of animals of every land, shown in characteristic attitudes and environments, each one described in rhymes, telling how it lives, where its home may be found, what climate, color, habits, what it eats, how captured, etc. Written with the aim to satisfy childish curiosity, and in language which they will readily understand. Many of the pictures are full-page. Bound in boards, over one hundred pages, quarto, $1.25.

BILLY WHISKERS. The Autobiography of a Goat. By Frances Trego Montgomery. A book of pure, innocent fun for the little ones, relating the queer adventures, exciting times, and comical experiences of a pet Billy Goat—how he runs away from home; becomes the property of a little Irish lad; hauls milk to the city; invades a flat; is arrested; becomes a member of the fire department; a performer in a circus; makes life lively on a farm, etc., etc. Handsomely illustrated with six colored plates and numerous other pictures, bound in boards, cover design in bright colors, $1.00.

New Books by Famous Writers of Juvenile Stories:

A STRUGGLE FOR A FORTUNE. By Harry Castlemon. How an orphan lad grew rich.

TIMOTHY AND HIS FRIENDS. By Mary E. Ireland. The story of a newsboy and his dog, Grace Darling.

FAR PAST THE FRONTIER. By James A. Braden. Or, Two Pioneer Boys of Ohio.

BARRY BARLOW'S AMBITION. By Arthur M. Winfield. The adventures of a young fireman.

THE LAST CRUISE OF THE ELECTRA. By Charles P. Chipman. A tale of a pirate, submarine boat.

THE BOY LAND BOOMER. By Capt. Ralph Bonehill. Dick Arbuckle's experience in Oklahoma.

RALPH GRANGER'S FORTUNE. By Wm. Perry Brown. From the mountain home to life on the sea.

HIS MOTHER'S LETTER. By J. M. Merrill. A tale of the Michigan lumber camps.

PHIL AND DICK. By Enrique H. Lewis. A story of cadets of the U. S. Navy.

THE YELLOW VIOLIN. By Mary A. Denison. How Marie, the waif, found her father.

Cloth, illustrated, $1.00 each.

THE REDMAN OF QUALITY. By Edward Everett Billings, author of "Marking the Boundary." A story of a company of five that started out to locate a sapphire field in the Rocky Mountains. They meet a young student of Carlisle, "The Redman of Quality," who becomes one of the party and whose knowledge of Indian warfare saves the lives of the adventurers. Handsomely illustrated, cloth, 12mo, gold stamped, $1.25.

IN A CAR OF GOLD. By P. L. Gray. A beautiful story, describing an imaginary trip to Mars, taken by two tiny maidens in a car of gold drawn by ponies. The book is a rival to "Alice in Wonderland," for even she had no more thrilling adventures or exciting times than these little girls of the earth. Handsomely bound in cloth, 12mo, illustrated by Bernard Gutman, $1.00.

THE LITTLE WOMAN IN THE SPOUT. By Mary Agnes Byrne. Two little girls make an old wooden spout which empties into a village street their trysting place, and imagine the spout to be the home of a quaint little woman who helps them out of their childish troubles and shares their joys. They take a little bond-girl into the secret and befriend her when wrongfully accused of stealing. Cloth, illustrated, 12mo, 60 cents.

ROY AND ROSYROCKS. By Mary Agnes Byrne. A fine Christmas story of two orphans that were adopted by a poor Irish woman. On Christmas Eve they attempt to decorate the home with holly, and in their search for it wander into the great city and become lost. Their rescuers prove to be their own uncle and aunt, who made the Christmas Day one long to be remembered in the Irish home. Cloth, 12mo, gold lettered, illustrated, 60 cents.

Abraham Lincoln

A Short Life. Condensed by John G. Nicolay from Nicolay and Hay's Life of Lincoln.

Condensed from the standard life of Lincoln by one of its authors. In one volume, 8vo, 600 pages, with portrait and index. Price $2.40 net (postage 18 cents).

The Bible for Children

The appeal of the Bible to children's minds is both natural and simple, yet there are some things in it that careful parents would keep from their children, and in reading it aloud to young children one often skips what seems unsuitable. These omitted portions include genealogies and whatever we regard as unprofitable for the young listeners. "The Bible for Children" contains an introduction by Bishop Potter and a preface by the Rev. Francis Brown, D.D. It is printed in two colors and beautifully illustrated with pictures from the old masters. $3.00.

Topsys and Turvys

Pictures and Verse by Peter Newell

Hold the book in one position for one picture; invert it, and behold! another. The present volume contains selections from the previous "Topsy and Turvy" books. Price $1.00 net (postage 11 cents).

ADNAH

A Tale of the Time of Christ. By J. BRECKENRIDGE ELLIS, author of "Garcilaso," etc. 12mo. Cloth. $1.25.

A spirited and skilfully drawn picture of life in Palestine during our Lord's ministry. While a love story is the fictional binding thread of the historical events, the real message of the book focuses on the effect of Christ's presence and teachings on the life of the hero. A critic has said, "it is the strongest tale of the time of Christ since 'Ben Hur.' "

ANN ARBOR TALES

SOUND SENSE IN CONCENTRATED LOZENGES

DON'TS FOR GIRLS

By MINNA THOMAS ANTRIM

A MANUAL OF MISTAKES

Like Gautier, the author "does not write for little girls whose bread is cut to squares," but without preachment, and in a way, tells young misses how to avoid the

WITTILY PHILOSOPHICAL

Pleasant Paths That Entice to Nowhere

Seeming to know the individual needs of her readers, she does not treat them as so many manikins—to be jerked into positions, but as rational beings, to be led, not driven, toward

GRACIOUS WOMANHOOD

Mrs. Antrim's objectivity and plain speech cannot fail to make a lasting impression also upon

THE WOMAN HIDDEN IN THE CHILD

The book is full of wisdom, but not of the stereotyped kind, and has walked straight into popularity.

Whitaker's Reference Catalogue.

We are now prepared to supply the "Reference Catalogue of Current English Literature," better known, perhaps, as "Whitaker's Reference List."

The work is arranged on the plan of "The Publishers' Trade List Annual," and contains recent lists of 179 of the more important English publishers. An index is prefixed to the lists containing 35,000 references to the books catalogued. It thus forms one of the most complete records of current English books accessible to the bookseller and librarian.

The work is in two volumes of about 5,000 pages, strongly bound in half leather. The price has been fixed at $5.00 net.

As the copies received for the American market are limited, we need hardly remind intending subscribers of the wisdom of placing your order without delay.

CIRCULARS?

In estimating the value of a circular letter for advertising purposes the vital question is not "How much do they cost per thousand?"—but—"How many orders or inquiries will be obtained per dollar of total outlay including postage?"

Which way do you figure?

We can duplicate typewriting so closely that your customer will be sure that the letter was personally addressed to him.

Of course he will answer it.

Bibliographic Publications.

For all American books as they appear, take THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY; for an hour's glance each month at the important books and magazine papers, take LITERARY NEWS; for library matters take THE LIBRARY JOURNAL; for magazine articles in general, consult THE ANNUAL LITERARY INDEX; for books in print or issued of late years, see THE AMERICAN and ANNUAL CATALOGUES, also, the index to the PUBLISHERS' TRADE LIST ANNUAL for 1902.

THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY. Established in 1872, with which was incorporated the American Literary Gazette and Publishers' Circular (established in 1852.) Recognized as the representative of the publishing and bookselling interests in the United States. Contains full weekly record of American publications, with monthly cumulative indexes, etc. Subscription, $3.00 a year, postpaid; to foreign countries, postpaid, $4.00 a year; single numbers, 10 cents, postpaid. Special Numbers: Educational Number, in leatherette, 50 cents; Christmas Number, 25 cents; the numbers containing the three, six and nine months' Cumulated Lists, 25 cents each. Each copies of the Annual Summary Number, to subscribers only, 50 cents each.

THE LIBRARY JOURNAL. Official Organ of the American Library Association. Chiefly devoted to library economy and bibliography. Established in 1876. Published monthly. Subscription, $5.00 a year, postpaid; single numbers, 50 cents. Price to Europe, or other countries in the Union, 20*s* a year; single numbers, 2*s*. (LITERARY NEWS is sent free to subscribers of THE LIBRARY JOURNAL.) Teachers may be interested in the "School Number" published in the spring of each year.

GENERAL INDEX TO THE LIBRARY JOURNAL, vols. 1–22, 1876–1897. Arranged to serve as an index to succeeding volumes or for other sources of professional information. 4°, in sheets, or paper binding, $2.50; A. L. A. half leather, $3.00.

LITERARY NEWS. A Monthly Journal of Current Literature. Contains the freshest news concerning books and authors; lists of new publications; reviews and critical comments; characteristic extracts; sketches and anecdotes of authors; bibliographical references; prominent topics of the magazines; portraits of authors, and illustrations from the newest books, etc., etc. Subscription, $1.00 a year, postpaid; single numbers, 10 cents.

THE AMERICAN CATALOGUE of books in print and for sale July 1, 1876, compiled under the direction of F. LEYPOLDT, and its supplements, 1876–84, 1884–90, 1890–95, and 1895–1900, compiled under the editorial direction of R. R. BOWKER, aims to present all the bibliographical features of the books in the American market, arranged in the first part alphabetically by both authors and titles, and in the second part alphabetically by subjects.

The Catalogue and its supplementary volumes form the only approximately complete guide in existence to the American books of the day, so arranged as to make reference easy from whatever direction the inquiry may come, whether from that of the author, or the title, or the subject. It not only furnishes the desired information about any particular book of which the consulter is in search, but shows what others there are by the same author or on the same subject in which he is interested. To the bookseller, therefore, it is valuable both in filling orders and in stimulating business; to the librarian, in supplying gaps and proportioning his collection; and to all who are practically concerned with books, in furnishing information which nowhere else is obtainable by so convenient a method, if obtainable at all.

The author-and-title volume of the 1876 volume is out of print. A limited number of the subject volume may be had in half leather binding at $15.

The volumes covering the periods 1876–84 and 1884–90 is also out of print.

——, 1890–95, 4°, hf. mor., $15.

——, 1895–1900, 4°, hf. mor., $15.

THE ANNUAL AMERICAN CATALOGUE. Containing yearly the monthly lists in THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY by author, title, and subject, and containing besides publishers' annual lists and directory of publishers. The volume covering 1900 and 1901. 8vo, cloth, net, $2.00.

THE PUBLISHERS' TRADE LIST ANNUAL. Contains: The latest catalogues of nearly 200 American publishers, contributed by themselves and arranged alphabetically by the firm-names and smaller lists at the end of the volume. These lists, all bound in one volume arranged alphabetically for ready reference, with marginal index, guiding the finger at once to the right letter, present in their combination so convenient and time-saving a working-tool as to make it indispensable to every one who has any interest in the purchase or sale of books. Large 8vo, with "Duplex Index," cloth, without index, net, $2.00; with index, 2 v., 8°, net, $7.00.

THE ANNUAL LITERARY INDEX, including Periodicals, American and English; Essays, Book-Chapters, etc., with Author-Index, Bibliographies, Necrology and Index to Dates of Principal Events, Edited, with the coöperation of members of the American Library Association and of The Library Journal staff, by W. I. FLETCHER and R. R. BOWKER. 8°, cloth, $3.50.

THE AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL CATALOGUE. Contains a price-list of all the text-books in use in the United States, arranged alphabetically by author's or editor's name, and a detailed subject-index, referring from each specific subject to authors of books on that subject. 8vo, leatherette, 50 cents.

THE ENGLISH CATALOGUE [Annual] giving full titles classified under author and subject in one strict alphabet, with particulars of the size, price, month of publication, and name of publisher of the books issued in Great Britain and Ireland, in the calendar year, being a continuation of the "London" and "British" Catalogues. [London: Sampson Low, Marston & Co.) 8vo, paper, net, $1.50. THE ENGLISH CATALOGUE and THE ANNUAL AMERICAN CATALOGUE bound in one volume, half leather, $5.00.

PUBLICATIONS OF SOCIETIES: a provisional list of the publications of American scientific, literary, and other societies from their organization. Compiled under the editorial direction of R. R. BOWKER. Schedules over 1100 societies issuing publications, and gives title-entries of all their publications, as far as data could be obtained from the societies and from libraries. 4°, paper, $2.50; cloth, $3.00.

STATE PUBLICATIONS: a provisional list of the official publications of the several States of the United States from their organization. Compiled under the editorial direction of R. R. BOWKER. Pt. 1: New England States—Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut. 4°, $2.00. (For complete work, $5.00.)

LIST OF AMERICAN PUBLISHERS, 1890–1895. The street address is given in nearly every case, and the abbreviation under which the firm's books are entered in the "American Catalogue," 1890–95. 4to, pap., $2.00.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT PUBLICATIONS. July 1, 1890 to June 30, 1895. Compiled, under the editorial direction of R. R. BOWKER, by J. H. HICKCOX. 60 pp., 4to, pap., $1.50.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL LIBRARY. By Rev. A. E. DUNNING. 16mo, cloth, 60 cents.

THE PROFESSION OF BOOKSELLING: a handbook of practical hints for the apprentice and bookseller. By A. GROWOLL, managing editor of THE PUBLISHERS' WEEKLY, and author of "A Bookseller's Library," "Book-trade Bibliography in the United States in the XIXth Century," etc. Pts. 1 and 2. 134 p. Large 8°, bds., each, $2.00. (Concluding part in preparation.)

A Key to Books in Print

The users of THE PUBLISHERS' TRADE LIST ANNUAL for 1902 will be interested to learn that the

Index Volume

is now in course of delivery to advance subscribers who will probably receive their copies before this advertisement appears in print. On the opposite page we present a sample page of the Index volume as an illustration of its scope. The books of the 246 publishers who this year have contributed the lists bound up in alphabetical order in the Catalogues volume, are indexed, it will be noticed, by author, title and subject catchword, furnishing, by means of 140,000 entries, ready reference to the books of the leading publishers in print on July 1, 1902, and to forthcoming books of which they could furnish information in August. The Index volume and the Catalogues volume of

will be found the most useful, as well as the least expensive, single book trade reference work yet issued, especially for the booksellers and small libraries who cannot afford to buy many trade tools. In order to give every possible opportunity to those who desire the work at the original subscription rate, on cash orders received before October 1, the price therefor will be $5 for the two volumes together; after that date the price will be $2 for the Catalogues volume and $5 for the Index volume, or $7 together, absolutely net.

The Catalogues volume is a huge octavo, probably the largest volume now issued, reaching, with 1902, 5700 pages, being 8¼ inches in thickness and weighing 20 pounds. Directions for enclosure delivery in New York should accompany the order, unless shipment is to be by express at the charge of the subscriber.

The Index volume, an octavo of 1114 pages, will be sent on approval to any bookseller or library enclosing 10 cents for partial postage. Of the Catalogues volume only 300 remain unsubscribed, and the edition of the Index volume is also limited. Address,

State Publications

A Provisional List of the Official Publications of the Several States of the United States from their Organization

COMPILED UNDER THE EDITORIAL DIRECTION OF

R. R. BOWKER

PART I: NEW ENGLAND STATES—Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut

This first part of the bibliography of State Publications includes preface giving a sketch of State Bibliography, and 99 pages covering the issues of the New England States from their organization, with blank space for extensions. But 500 copies have been printed, and there are no plates.

The complete work, exceeding 300 pages, will be furnished at $5, and the first part will be sent, only to those subscribing for the whole, on the receipt of subscription and $2 remittance.

The attention of State libraries, of the central public libraries, and of foreign libraries is especially called to this publication, but it is also important to that larger number of libraries which cannot undertake to collect the State publications even of their own State, and yet should be able to inform students and inquirers as to what is to be found in the publications of their own State and of other States. What New York and Massachusetts are doing in forestry, for instance, is of importance in all States and to foreign students of the subject.

Publications of Societies

A Provisional List of the Publications of American Scientific, Literary, and Other Societies from their Organization

R. R. BOWKER

This volume, of about 200 pages, schedules over 1100 societies issuing publications, and gives title-entries of all their publications, as far as data could be obtained from the societies and from libraries. It will be found of use in all libraries—in large libraries as a check-list, in small libraries as a bibliographical key to a most important field of special literature.

THE CLIMAX

Or WHAT MIGHT HAVE BEEN

BY CHARLES FELTON PIDGIN

Author of "QUINCY ADAMS SAWYER" and "BLENNERHASSETT"

NEW YORK JOURNAL, Sept. 13, said: "No more interesting book has been written for a long time than 'The Climax.' It founds a new school in historical novel writing, and whether one agrees with the author in his hero worship and theories or not, it is well worth reading."

Price $1.50
